

"EXCEPT IN AUGUST."

A Boston paper has published a few samples of a new edition of the Bible, made to meet twentieth century conditions. Here are a few specimens. Many churches in Boston are closed during August, hence the timelines of this new version:

"I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy,—except in August.

"The Lord is in his holy temple,—except in August.

"One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,"—except in August.

"I will abide in thy tabernacle forever,"—except in August.

"My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord,"—except in August.

"Strength and beauty are in thy sanctuary,"—except in August.

"I was glad—except in August—when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord."

"Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them,"—except in August.

"Preach the gospel to every creature,"—except in August.

"Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season,"—except in August.

"Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together,"—except in August.

"To the poor is the gospel preached,"—except in August.

"This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears; they continued steadfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers,"—except in August.

"Application: Well done, ye good and faithful summerers, for ye have closed the house of God in August, and have taken the key thereof; ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in, ye hindered."

POPE LEO'S REIGN.

In the long list of Pope's, Leo XIII, who died Monday, aged 93 years, was one of the best beloved of those who have filled that exalted position. He secured to an unusual extent the affection of his own people, the purity and saintliness of his character commended to all. He was moreover a man of statesmanlike mold, and one of the ablest men of his own or any other age. His pontificate has had some of the most difficult problems of the nineteenth century to solve, and he met them all with rare success. He was more than a match for as astute a man as Bismarck, and that without any of the somewhat German's statesman's methods. It will be a very difficult task for the sacred to fill his place.

"GONE."

After "forty long years" of prosperous existence Frank B Greens's hotel is closed, gone shut up. It was one of the first places here twenty years ago and kept on its way every day since till last Monday when he pulled down the sign, bolted the door and turned the house over to Charles Strieber to reconstruct into two flats, one for his own family, and one to rent, and the upper floor is already rented.

The development of his bakery business with its new annex has been so rapid that it requires all his time and attention. Hence, hereafter hungry school ma'ms and others will have to go elsewhere for board.
