They dance well and the two songs they sing, accompanying themselve onthe banjo are side splitting and Bethany Church Society to Wm. are loudly applauded.

work is that presented by Marshall and Lorraine. Miss Lorraine first appears as a young actress magnificiently gowned, but makes a change as the act proceeds to the character of a tough girl. In this she is wonderfully clever and keeps the audience in roars of laughter during the entire act. She has "a way with her,"which wins her audience and the duo are heartily encored.

Of Beautiful Solora, in her "Visions of Art," too much cannot be said. She is a queen of beauty and her act with the magnificent electrical effects, the superb poses, graceful draperies and beautiful pictures is altogether the most superb piece of artistic work ever before seen here. It is worth going many miles to see and once seen will always be remembered.
