Additional Locals

It looks as though F. D. Everett, of the street and alley committee had told Olaf Lindblom to tear up every piece of old plank sidewalk and put down good cement walk in their place, and Olaf with his crew of men are doing it all the time, all over. We saw him last upon Vine avenue.

The "Horrible Example" of the cigarette was portrayed at the Methodist church in Wilmette the other night by camera and cartoon. Parents, teachers and children were especially invited. It would be much better to use some of the S. S. S.'s as "horrible examples," then the parents could see the genuine article.

The lawn fete for Gad's Hill summer colony out near Ravinia, was an eminently successful affair as managed by Mrs. Steele up on the grounds of the old W. W. Boyington and W. A. Alexander place. It is inspiring to find women with tact, energy and public christian spirit to push such an enterprise through in such a successful manner.

Prof. Arthur L. Eno, of the state university of Texas spent the week with his aunt at Ravinook on his way from the Lone Star state to his old home in the east. He put in one day examining methods, etc., at the university of Chicago. He was here ten years ago and says the Park has passed from a country village to a beautiful suburban residence city during the decade.

At the recital last Sunday evening at Trinity church, Wm. Bowers was assisted by Miss Messenger, of Chicago, who played very beautifully upon the harp. Miss Messenger has kindly consented to play again next Sunday evening and a special program is being prepared. All music lovers should take notice and be present. The recital follows even-song at half past seven o'clock.

The public is entitled to know that our friend Uncle Samuel in Washington has sent William King his commission as assistant postmaster general of this city in recognition of his faithful and accurate management of the business of this office.

We hope his days in that position will be many, and that he may gather in shekels for his uncle and himself also, for Uncle Samuel pays generously.

What a splendid race we are developing in this country, said a southern gentleman at the concert at the Moraine as he gazed on the moving throng. "Where in the world," said he "Can you find finer specimens of stalwart, sturdy, manly strength, keenness and breadth of intellectual grip and grasp and the womanly beauty, grace and perfection of physique, than we see here to-night."

Still more wrecks on the Northwestern Railroad. The Northwestern had its usual quantity of accidents on this branch this week, cars were derailed just north of Winthrop Harbor. A way freight engine collided with an extra near Kenosha, in the mix up two of the crew were injured. A mix up was reported at Evanston the same day. At the rate the road is going in this line we expect to hear of a passenger or excursion train smash up and large loss of life, before precautions are taken.

A genuine old fashioned surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Streiber last Monday, it being the anniversary of Mr. Streiber's birthday. About fifty-five of their most intimate friends arrived in a body after congratulations, etc., the house was litterly turned over to the company, who declared they never spent a more jolly evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour and everybody went home well pleased voting grandpa Streiber and "Aunt Millie" most excellent host and hostess.

FORT SHERIDAN PARK.

A most excellent performance is on the bills at Fort Sheridan Park's cozy little theatre this week. It abounds in rollicking fun from start to finish.

Allen and Bright present a very clever comedy sketch which contains some clever dancing, bright lines and some good acrobatic stunts.

Eleanore Butler has made a decided hit with the patrons, by her songs and monologues. She will be welcome whenever she wishes to return.

Robert B. Atchison & Company are seen in a society comedy sketch entitled "Papa's Burglar." It is clever, the parts well taken and the play interesting.

The Juggling Mathius display marvelous dexerty. Mr. Mathis his quick as a flash and his feats are a little short marvelous.

A unique sketch is presented by Childers and Robisch. It is lively and the musical numbers are especially liked. They have made themselves favorites.
