Want to be a man, do you? Well you may attain the age of 21 and a stature of five feet six and be a man. Age and size don't make a real man. Some people when grown are as worthless as when they were boys—in fact a worthless boy is usually worthless when he grows up to a man's size. The real man grows up from a manly boy. The habits he forms in youth stay with him. Now is the time to make yourself what you hope to be in after life. It will be too late when you are grown. The gods are satisfied when a man does his best but the neighbors may still find fault with him.
