NO. 13.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Miss Chandler gave a "Porch Party" yesterday afternoon.

A fine line of gents' and boys' negligee shirts at Bohl's Haberdashery.

Miss Mildred Mihills is visiting at Green Lake, Wis., for a few weeks.

All copy must be in by Friday noon to insure insertion in the NEWS-LETTER.

Mrs. A. B. Bastin and sister, Miss Beardsley, are visiting in Hillsdale, Michigan.

Miss Kregen, of Chicago, spent Sunday and a part of this week at Ravinook.

Fred P. Sutherland returned from his ten days trip to New York Saturday morning.

Mrs. M. A. Raborg and son, of Denver, Colo., are visiting her brother, Mr. C. C. Meade.

Mrs. M. J. Bishop and daughter, of Washington, D. C., are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Bishop's brother, Henry K. Coale.

If you want school childrens boots and shoes below cost, go to Klines just back of the Highland Park bank. A clearing sale all next week.

The Northwestern excursion to Waukesha, Wednesday, was a fine affair, but it was badly advertised. The people knew nothing of it till to late.

Among the passengers sailing on the Lucerne August 8, from New York for London, were Mrs. M. W. Harlow and Miss Harlow, of Highland Park.

Mrs. Jennings the librarian, has returned from her two weeks vacation and was in her accustomed place as usual when the library opened Tuesday.

Mrs. Edmund Norton of Indiana has been in this city for a few days as the guest of Mrs. Hugh T. Birch at Ravinook. She left for home Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. Grover of Park street are happy over the arrival of a little daughter, who put in her appearance July 29th. She bears the name of Frances.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the B. of K. T., of Chicago, gave a very pleasant and highly appreciated entertainment to the boys at the R. R. Mens Home on Wednesday.

A Chicago paper of last Sunday had not only a very fine full page picture of Pope Pius X, but a full chronilogist of the names of all the Popes from the time of St. Peter to Pius X.

Henry Whitten, of Tall Timber, Montana, is visiting his brother, William. They had not seen each other for eighteen years and did not know one another when they met, till they were introduced.

Mrs. Hibbard cut a bright maroon double dablice the other day and to her surprise found on the reverse side of the flower a second double flower in full bloom. It was a genuine "double headed" flower, a Siamese twins, a freak of nature very seldom found.

Miss VanSchaick returned from her visit to the home of C. C. Cheney in Virginia last week. She reports them delightfully situated on their 1200 acre plantation, busy and happy raising corn, tobacco, etc. While in the evenings they read the welcome Sheridan Road NEWS-LETTER.

There was quite a party of Park people who went to Half Day for a dinner and evening dance in the grove Saturday afternoon. The Marsh family from the Moraine in their large auto took about a dozen. F. R. McMullen's big team, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Doty in a buggy.

While the summer boarders up at Lake Geneva, Waukesha, and Mackinaw are sweltering in the heat, here at the Park, they dress in flannels, and sit on the porches and lawns in the bright sunlight for comfort. This is the ideal summer resort. Therefore our boarding houses and the peerless Moraine are crowded all the time.

William A. Raborg, of Denver, is spending the summer vacation at Charles C. Meads on Lincoln avenue. He was twelve years old Wednesday and his hosts got up a very pleasant birthday party for him, with Miss Helen R. Coale as mistress of the fish pond part of the entertainment. Cake, cream, lemonade, etc., were served on the lawn.

Make your plans to attend the Lake county fair at Libertyville the first of September. The Electric Railway folks assure us they will run trains from Lake Bluff over to Libertyville for the fair so everybody here can go and come conveniently. It is the best and most successful county fair in the state and is entitled to our cordial support.

A fine large thrifty white oak which stood in the middle of the new cement sidewalk to be built by Olaf Lindblom on Central avenue in front of Mrs. Floyd's place, was cut down Tuesday so the walk could be kept "straight". It was an outrage to cut down that fine old vigorous 15 inch in diameter tree. Mrs. Floyd felt very badly when that pride of her grounds fell.

John P. Kline the old reliable boot and shoe dealer and manufacturer has at last secured the agency of the famous Dr. Reed cushioned sole shoe, and the easiest shoe made. These are all sizes and styles with a nice soft felt cushion in the sole. Though he only began their sale Monday, they have sold rapidly all the week, some customers coming back for a second pair.

Walter Chapman reached the Park Sunday afternoon, having sailed from Queenstown, Wednesday, July 29, to Boston. He left his sisters well, Bertha, Mrs. Captain Skepwith, within the suburbs of Cork, and Grace, Mrs. Lieutenant Morrirt, on her husband's estate, Rokeby, in northern Yorkshire. He had a very pleasant six week's within and about London and at their homes

The library board, Miss Street and Mr Warren absent, held a meeting and by a majority vote decided to put the new Carnegie library building where the present building stands, though some of the members so voted under protest. This action is a great disappointment to the ladies who secured the gift and to many others and is the opinion of some that it will not meet Mr. Carnegie's approval.

There seems to be a series of "Friday afternoons" among our society ladies. Of those recently given was one by Mrs. VanSchaick with a prize paper by Mrs Robert B. Gregory on Holland; another by Mrs. Daniel Cobb, a third by Mrs. C. C. Yoe and then Mrs. Dr. Haskins followed suit last Friday. The ladies meet chat, or hear a paper perhaps some music, sip a cup of tea with light refreshments and have a good time geuerally.

Springfield, Vermont, claims the youngest real daughter of the Revolution in the person of Mrs. Randall, whose father Stephen Hasham was a lad of 14 years when the battle of Bunker Hill was fought in which he as a Charleston boy participated in carrying water and other supplies to the Americans. In 1841, his first wife having died being then 80 years old, he married a young woman of whose five children Mrs. Randall is one, she being a girl in her teens when her father died in 1861, she is now 54 years old.
