CORNER STONE LAYING.

The corner stone of St. Mary's church, now in course of construction, will be laid on Sunday, August 23, at 4 p. m.

The ceremony will be performed by Rt. Rev. Bishop Muldoon, DD. V. G., of Chicago, assisted by two score of clergymen from Chicago and vicinity. The sermon for this occasion will be delivered by Rev. P. C. Conway, rector of St. Pius church, Chicago. At the conclusion of the services Bishop Muldoon has kindly consented to deliver a short address.

Father Morrissey tenders a general invitation to the public to be present at the ceremonies.

FATHER MARQUETTE.

The Knights of Columbus are endeavoring to verify the tradition that Father Marquette, the great Jesuit discover, stopped at Highland Park on his return from the Mississippi. On Sunday representatives of Marquette council Knights of Columbus, Chicago, visited Highland Park for the purpose of investigating the matter. The committee consists of Daniel P. Cahill, W. H. F. Young and John Harrington.

From the facts elicited it appears to be probable that the tradition is authentic. Should the investigation warrant it steps will be taken to suitably mark the site of Father Marquette's visit to Highland Park. The committee has requested Miss Mary Dooley to assist in the investigation.

THE CHAMELEON.

Nunda had a chameleon. It was not hers and she was keeping it for Robert the soldier while he is gone to the bloodless war at Fort Douglas in Wisconsin. The chameleon changed color from a bright green to a dull gray, as he went from the grassy lawn to the kitchen floor. Nunda kept him tethered to a box by a string about five feet long. Monday she put the box or cage out on the lawn so chameleon could get the sunshine and the fresh air. While he was sunning himself the old speckled hen came along, looked at the chameleon a moment and then swallowed him, and now poor Nunda moans. She fears Robert the soldier will be angry when he comes back from the bloodless war in Wisconsin.
