AN UNFORTUNATE VICTORY.

In the case of John Rouse vs. Walter C. Hartley in Judge Hibbard's court last Tuesday, the defendant called for a jury and they gave him his full demand. Now if they had given him some five or ten dollars less than his demand Mr. Hartley probably would have ended the case, but as they gave Mr. Rouse his full demand he takes an appeal and no matter how much Mr. Rouse gets there the trial will hurt him all or more than he can get from Mr. Hartley. In the other case Mr. Rouse would have been something ahead, now he will come out something, and perhaps more behind. Hence it was an unfortunate victory and only temporary at best. The jury meant to help Mr. Rouse, but they really injured him.

A CHANGE.

Prof. W. A. Wilson, after several years of successful work here as the head of our high school, resigns for a more lucrative position with a life insurance company and will have his headquarters in Waukegan, having taken a house of Mrs. Carhart, on Second street in that city.

His successor Mr. Sandwick is from California and was here one day this week looking over the situation, selecting a home, etc. He has taken the Bohl cottage on Linden avenue into which he will move his family.

LOOK OUT!

The police, under orders from the mayor are on the lookout for bicycle and carriages of all sorts on the streets after dark without lighted lanterns. The ordinance require lights in the evening and the police will arrest any one riding or driving without them.

They have already begun and some unfortunates have been hauled before the judge and fined. If you get arrested don't kick and make a fuss, but pay your fine at once.
