

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1903.

NO. 14.

Lost—The summer of 1903.

See W. E. Brand for Fire Insurance.

Monday is Labor day and thou shall do no work.

R. W. Patton has a pair of jersey cows, the finest in the city.

School begins next Tuesday with several new teachers.

Landlord Evans has put up a gas light post in front of his hotel.

Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff spent part of this week at Ashton, Ill., with friends.

Orson B. Brand carried off three first prizes for photo work at the fair this week.

It is understood that H. C. Bayse will soon go to a warmer climate for the winter.

Mrs. A. Meyer, the mother of Mrs. W. J. Obee died Friday, being over 70 years of age.

Walter A. Chapman is in the White Mountains taking in new physical life and vigor.

Miss Eleanor Smoot will return from Utah in season for the High School which opens the 14th.

Thursday afternoons are the popular court days now, market men lay off then and collect their bills.

The summer emigres are returning to their civilized homes. We have seen Capt. Morgan, R. G. Chandler and others on the streets.

Mrs. F. E. Streeter, niece of Madam Green, is spending a few days in town. Her uncle formerly owned the Highland Park Hotel.

The Ladies' Aid Society met Friday with Mrs. Frank P. Hawkins.

A very pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent. Light refreshments were served.

The number of good solid citizens who do not want the new Carnegie library building on the old site is increasing every day.

Better look out for the police, they are after the fellows who trot horses over bridges and ride bicycles without lights in the evening.

The new high school principal is very highly spoken of, and when California heard he was coming to the Park they offered him a big bonus to stay out there.

Mr and Mrs Charles A. Chapman are spending the Sunday in Montreal on their way to Bar Harbor, Maine, where their eldest son Clarence C. will be married next Saturday.

Some of the folks who went over to Libertyville last Saturday at the opening of the electric road were so tired they had to get off at Highwood and walk home.

Mrs. Geo. B. Cumings entertained her niece, Miss First, lady principle of the Pillsbury Academy at Owatonna, Minnesota, Tuesday night. She was on her way home from Europe.

Thomas Carlyle once said of the British nation, forty millions of people, mostly fools. And station agent Cumings sold over 200 tickets to the county fair via the electric road Thursday.

Our venerable friend M. Moses, did not go to the fair Thursday, but the mayor, aldermen and everybody else went. When they went on the street Friday morning they saw a big sign up just west of Moses store.

Edward M. Laing, our old time hydraulic engineer, has the contract for putting down the sewers and water mains in the new Exmoor addition. The city want need any inspector to see that he does it right.

A few young men and women can secure a full scholarship in a Chicago Business College at half rate, in exchange for a few hours work and earn money besides. Address this office, C. B. C. 14

Capt. Geo. W. Burke Jr., formerly of our Military Academy, was in town Wednesday evening for a few hours. He dined at Ravinook. His present place of work is Rock Hill Hall, Wellesly Hills, Mass.

One man who trotted his nag across the Middleton bridge a few days ago is going to fight the case in the courts. We hope he will, it will be up to Attorney Smoot now to show that his ordinance will hold water and "Highwood cordial."

Fred Schaefer and his two associates, ex-mayor Cobb and ex-judge Dooly are to be congratulated on their work as assessors. There have been very few complaints. They tried to do a good job and the general impression is they did it. The entire cost to the town was only $687.50.

In the famous suit of the Chicago Telephone Company against James Cape and Sons of Racine, for damaging ther telephone cable under the Vine Avenue subway when they macadamized that street a couple of years ago, was decided Thursday by Judge Hibbard. The telephone folks sued for $131 and the Judge granted $90.

Walter Roberts, who has a great number of friends in Highland Park, will give an all-day clam bake and game dinner at Fort Sheridan Park, Friday, Sept. 11. Tickets can be had for $1, which will entitle you to all the clams you can eat beside admit you to the ball in the evening.

MOTHER OF C. A. KUIST PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Philippina Kuist, nee Meyer, was born Feb. 8, 1823, at Leopold's Haven, Baden, and died in her home at Highland Park, Ill., Sept. 4, 1903, at 1 o'clock in the morning, aged 80 years, 6 months, 26 days.

The deceased came to America with her parents in 1836, when she was but 13 years old, and located in Rochester, N. Y., where they remained until 1865, when she came to Deerfield, Ill., remaining there until moving to Highland Park eleven years ago.

On May 12, 1853, she was united in marriage to Andrew Kuist, with whom she shared life's joys and sorrows for more than fifty years. Six children, four sons and two daughters, were born unto them, all of whom are living, and were present at the golden wedding, celebrated May 12th of this year.

Mrs. Kuist has been a patient sufferer for many years, and during all this time she was tenderly cared for by loving hands. Her intense desire to be at home was finally realized. Her end was peace.

The funeral services will be held on Sunday at the late home on Second street, at 12 o'clock, and at the United Evangelical church, at 12:30, conducted by Rev. J. G. Finkbeiner. The interment will be at Rose Hill.