Gent's and Boy's Furnishings at Bohl's Haberdashery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. White have returned home from a four weeks trip in Canada.

Miss Bottom, of the sixth grade, has not yet returned to her post in the public school. She is with an invalid sister in the Adirondacks, whom she is trying to nurse back to health and prolonged life from an attack of tuberculosis. The Adirondacks are one of nature's great sanitariums for the healing of lung diseases. Miss Bottom hopes to see her sister restored to sound health and years of life.

John T. Raffens & Son have sold their yards, offices, together with their lumber and feed business to Alex Roberson. The Raffens retain their ice business, but their office or headquarters will be elsewhere. This concentrates the lumber and coal business on the west side and will remove all trace of lumber yards, etc. from north of St. John's avenue.

Miss Halsey Gavitt, daughter of Chaplain Halsey C. Gavitt of the U. S. A., has been granted a special partial scholarship in the Dramatic Department of Chicago Musical College, and will enter the college, on September 14, for one year's course, preparatory to making her debut on the stage. Miss Gavitt has studied dramatic art since a child and is possessed of rare dramatic ability, a sweet personality and fine voice. Her many friends and admirers wish her success.

The Presbyterian congregation had the pleasure of hearing Miss Dunlap sing last Sabbath. It will be remembered that Miss Dunlap used to be soprano singer in the choir here a few years ago, and lately sang at the People's church, in McVicker's theatre, when Dr. Thomas' successor, Dr. Crane, preached there. She sings again next Sabbath morning at the Presbyterian church, accompanied by Geo. Jones on the violin. The music committee are negotiating with Miss Dunbar to engage her permanently for the choir.

"Hurrah for the big baseball game!" Thus is headed a series of posters announcing the game to be played by the married men of town and the young men. The "boys" think they are to have a walkaway, but they don't remember how Schuyler Coe, Dana and Dale Sweetland,

David Erskine, Schaeffer, Willetts, Ed and Frank Warren, Frank Green Greenslade, Doty, Anson Morgan and others used to be "stars." Think of what a lineup they are going to make. David Holmes has been asked to act as umpire. He says he is not sure whether he will accept, for he hasn't time to have increased life insurance taken out. Drs. Haskin and Bergen have been engaged professionally to attend the game, and our drug store people have ordered a extra large amount of arnica, witch hazel, Omega oil and court plaster. The game will be played on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, at the Academy grounds. Everybody come and see the game and fun.

GAD'S HILL.

To the friends and patrons of Gad's Hill Encampment:

The management of the Gad's Hill Encampment wishes to express, to the people of the North Shore, their appreciation for the generous co-operation and support which has been extended to them in conducting the work during the season which has just closed. Especially do we wish to thank the friends who have personally assisted in caring for the guests and in providing for entertainments and amusements of various kinds. During the season 665 mothers and children have spent a week with us, and all have returned to the city better fitted for work and life in a great city.

A SHOW FOR YOUR MONEY.

When you spend a dollar you expect to get a dollar's worth of something in return. If you don't you are not likely to spend another dollar for the same purpose. In this particular all men are more or less alike—rather more than less.

Look over the advertising columns of the SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER and note the merchants who advertise week after week. They are not doing this to help the SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER. They are doing it to help themselves. They are putting their advertising dollars where they will do them the most good.

The SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER is read by two classes of people—your customers and your competitor's customers. Use it and you reach both. And the result is you get some trade from your competitor's customers and more trade from your own.

HIGHWOOD.

Dan Cox, of Kenosha, was giving the glad hand to old friends here yesterday.

Master Willie, son of W. H. Detrick, is confined to his home with the measles.

The local price of hard coal is now $8 with another boost in sight for October 1.

After returning from a visit to St. Louis W. H. Detrick says that Ft. Sheridan is good enough for him.

A large number of Socialists and their families from Chicago picniced at the reservation last Sunday.

A large number of our teamsters, carpenters, painters and laborers took part in the Labor Day parade at Waukegan.

One battalion of the 20th Infantry and the two batterys of Artillery leave the Post on the 20th for Fort Thomas, Ky.

John Connorton, who returned from the Philippines last spring is seriously ill with tuberculosis at the home of his brother James.

Sheridan Lodge, No. 662, I. O. O. F. meets every Wednesday evening. Lake Shore Lodge, No. 558, K. of P. every Monday evening. Visitors always welcome.

Almost everyone in our city attended the Fair last week, and all report about the same, that they saw a big pumpkin, an overgrown squash, and a string of grafters that extended from the gate to the grand stand. Along this midway could be found every skin game known to the fraternity, from the shark with the three shells who asks you to locate the elusive little pea, to a crap game with "sure thing" dice from Highwood. Of course the fiend was there with the pink lemonade which was about as deadly as the cigar given you by the striking machine man. However all these seem necessary adjuncts to a country fair, as it is said that the farmer who attends and don't get bunkoed does not enjoy himself. So if any of our citizens were disappointed in that respect they certainly can't blame it on the man who dispensed the privileges.
