The Average Business Man

is wrapped up in his business. The success of that business is uppermost in his mind. He uses ELECTRIC LIGHT to further his business ends, but oftentimes forgets that it is best for the home as well. If you are one of these, we would suggest that you install ELECTRIC LIGHT in your home, not only for your own satisfaction, but that of others. There is no better time for doing this than NOW.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

FORT SHERIDAN PARK.

A program which has plenty of merit, mirth and music was seen at the pretty theatre at Fort Sheridan Park the past week. Every act was a feature.

The world renowned "Little Dutch Girl," Mattie Vickers, is a tremendous hit in her quaint bit of character work. Her act alone is worth going many miles to see.

The Howard Sisters sung and danced themselves into favor.

Baby Howard is one of the most clever child dancers it has ever been our pleasure to see.

Ester Wallace sings sweetly "When the Lilacs Bloom Again" and "Just Next Door." They are beautifully illustrated.

Wm. H. Windon is amusing in a character impersonation of a colored nurse girl. He sings well, and his song "All Aboard for Slumberville" is especially well received.

The Randolph Trio present a very unique musical act. It represents a farmyard scene and the stage contains cows and chickens which are in reality cleverly cleverly constructed musical instruments.

The Prampens offer some very amusing dialogue and are wonderful performers upon the cornet.

Next week's bill, commencing Monday, Sept. 14, will consist of the renowned artists, Fred and Amy Gottlob, in an uproariously funny farce comedy sketch entitled "A Shrewd Dutchman."

Miss Ida McIntyre, America's petit yodler.

Threlkeld & Wicke, famous musical artists, players on many new and novel instruments.

Nadine & Noldi, expert comedy acrobats.

Leonora Wicke, operatic soprano, with illustrated songs.

Ester Wallace, in beautiful transformations. Superb electrical effects.

Barry & Johnson in a comedy satire.

Edison Projecting Kinetoscope, with artistic and funny moving pictures.

An excellent bill which cannot fail to please all who are fortunate enough to witness it.

RAVINIA.

Dr. George Bruce Martin, of Chicago, was a guest at Mr. Leonard's on Sunday.

Mrs. Jos. Stipe entertained the Ladies Society of the Catholic church, at her home, Thursday.

Mrs. Rockwell, prominent in the Moody Fresh Air Work last summer, has been spending a few days here.

School opened to the tune of hammer and saw, as the work of building steps, etc., is far from complete.

Madam Collum returned home after a visit of a week here with her son and daughter and the family of H. Jessup.

Miss Agnes L. Hill has returned from her eastern trip and reports a succession of delightful experiences at the seashore, Niagara Falls, on the Hudson, and sightseeing in New York city. She witnessed the international yacht race between the Alliance and Shamrock. In view of Sir Thomas Lipton's repeated failure to win the prize cup, she says it occurred to her: "How many is the slip between the cup and Lipton." Miss Hill was chaperoned by a cousin in New York and accompanied by her brother, Percy Leonard Hill, who is now in business in New York city.
