The Average Business Man

is wrapped up in his business. The success of that business is uppermost in his mind. He uses ELECTRIC LIGHT to further his business ends, but oftentimes forgets that it is best for the home as well. If you are one of these, we would suggest that you install ELECTRIC LIGHT in your home, not only for your own satisfaction, but that of others. There is no better time for doing this than NOW.

HIGHWOOD.

Council meeting Tuesday night, the 22nd.

Barney Berubaum and family moved to Waukegan on Thursday last.

Who would have thought that the "Bowser" would never be missed?

Daniel Webster Proctor, of Evanston, honored us with his presence last Sunday.

Alex Robinson contemplates the erection of several cottages on the west side at an early date.

John Wolf, of Champaign, Ill., late roadmaster of the electric road, visited here last week.

As rapidly as teams can be had to do the hauling, a number of our streets will be graveled.

Hugo Acht left last week to join his regiment, now stationed at Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y.

Eugene Cox was quietly married to a young lady of Kenosha, at St. Joe, Mich, September 7.

Now that the ice man has about finished with you, you are consigned to the tender mercy of the coal man.

Dr. F. G. Wescott and family have gone to Elgin for a two weeks vacation. During his absence Dr. Haskins will look after his practice.

For the first time the Fort was lighted by electricity last Wednesday night. The current is furnished by the Highland Park plant.

Mrs. C. E. Preston who recently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis, at a Chicago hospital, is expected home soon.

Score one more for Lorillard and the town officer who brought it here. A once promising business man and small bore politician "all in" on the races.

The citizens of Ft. Sheridan are practicing a deadly jolt to be used at the next town election, if the object of their wrath will only stay in the game.

Sheridan Lodge of Odd Fellows elected officers last Wednesday evening. A. A. Dahl will be presiding officer and John Gustavson secretary during the coming term.

Two batteries of artillery and eight companies of infantry received their monthly pay at the post last Monday, but so far as business along the street was concerned the fact was not noticeable.

Gibbs' Colts and the Never Sweats played a game on the government grounds last Sunday. Score, 17 to 6 in favor of the Colts. The feature of the game was the base hits Charlie Unbehaun did not make.

Louis Pease and J. A. Brady have completed and patented an automatic mail catcher. The device is being given a practical test by the government in Chicago, and if satisfactory will be adopted for general use on mail cars.

The tramp who was arrested Thursday by the police on a charge of having stolen $18 from a lady at the Exmoor, was released, as the lady who saw him in the house refused to prosecute. An examination of the man proved that he was "daffy."

After the closing hour last Monday night, a number of soldiers entered the basement of Alderman Murphy's saloon and carried away two cases and half a barrel of beer. The lock was either picked or had been left unlocked, as nothing was broken to gain entrance. Officer Burke met four soldiers at the Park entrance who were taking the goods north. They said they had bought them, and as it was pay day, about the only time they have the price, together with their nerve in carrying the goods up the main street, allayed the officer's suspicions. However, their faces are known, and they will be arrested on sight.
