THE MORaine.

Last Saturday evening at the Moraine, was the event of the season; the annual Harvest Home ball and supper. The place was beautifully decorated, showers of oats being hung from the electric lights, pumpkins and squash in abundance in every place where it would add a touch of beauty to an already pretty summer home. Two dinners were hugely enjoyed, one at 12 p. m. The guests and patrons report a very enjoyable time and Mr. Cushing the best of hosts. Every year at the Moraine has been better than the last. They have been over crowded this year, being obliged to send guests away.
