

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Ammond M R
May 1, 03

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1903.

NO. 18.

See W. E. Brand for Fire Insurance.

Miss Nesbit is a guest of Miss Ethel Turnley.

Mr. Charles Strock has gone to work in Ravinia.

Mrs. Orson Smith of Chicago, is a guest at the Moraine.

Miss Marion Henderson is out again after a severe illness.

Mrs. D. C. Banister of Chicago, visited friends here this week.

Turnley Lightner has returned to the Boston School of Technology.

Mr. Joe Bedard was made the happy father of a girl last Sunday.

Geo. Bock has bought the lot on Central avenue, next to John Duffy's.

Arthur P. Wycoff entertained visitors from Chicago last Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Casey Wood, summer visitors at the Moraine, left this week.

Miss Ruth Kershau of Bloomington, spent Sunday here with her sister.

Sir Thomas Lipton was in Highland Park last week in an automobile.

The city council will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday night, Oct. 6.

Mr. N. J. Ross of the Avenue House, Evanston, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. D. P. Sheahan has returned to town after a pleasant visit in Wisconsin.

The academy boys are wearing a new style of cap this year. It is very natty.

Harry Sampson will attend the University of Illinois at Champaign this winter.

Mr. Henry Edwards spent Sunday in the Park with his mother, Mrs. Boyler.

Mrs. C. Davidson of Chicago, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Herman Denzel this week.

Mrs. Callum of Kenton, Ohio, visited her cousin Miss Nellie Ogilvie, last Saturday.

The Fullerton place has been occupied this summer by Mr. H. L. Birch and family.

Fred Bruealt, a carpenter, injured his back very severely while doing some heavy lifting.

Mr. A. J. Norenberg is greatly improving his house by adding a very beautiful porch.

Mr. and Miss Morrison and Miss Adeline Inman spent Sunday with friends at Kenilworth.

Mr. H. Fiebele is doing a very artistic job of painting and papering at Mrs. Dana Sweetlands.

H. O. Stone of Chicago, who has been a guest at the Moraine, returned to his home this week.

Judge Hibbard has an old gun and silver watch left by a fellow caught shooting birds last Sunday.

The Misses A. R. and Helen La Bar left yesterday morning for Delavan, Wis., for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barnes of Chicago, are guests at the Moraine for the balance of the season.

The apron bazaar, given by the United Evangelical church last week netted quite a neat little sum.

Miss Maggie Mooney has taken an indefinite vacation from Mr. Evans grocery store on account of illness.

Mr. Martin Schultz of Chicago, engaged rooms this week at the Moraine for the balance of the season.

Mrs. S. H. Harrington, who has been at the sanitarium in Racine, Wis., has had a severe attack of paralysis.

Dr. Nesbit, who has been a guest of Turnley Lightner, has returned to Lewiston, Penn., near Philadelphia.

Dr. Lynch has been quite ill in consequence of which she has resigned her practice to Dr. Albert R. Sheldon.

Wednesday evening until Thursday, sundown of this week, the Jewish people celebrate the day of atonement.

Dr. Zitelman, the German Vice Consul who has been spending his summer at the Moraine, has returned to Chicago.

The Highland Park High School foot ball team played the second team of the Lake Forest Academy Wednesday.

The bi-monthly lunch club met Thursday with Mrs. Henry Clark on Central avenue and had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. Williams of Wilmette, was the "lucky man" in the raffle, for the horse owned by Mr. D. P. Morrison of this place.

Miss Annie Rudolph and Mrs. John Snyder spent Wednesday in Humboldt Park with their sister, Mrs. A. D. Denmark.

Mr. Chas Schneider and Mr Arthur Purdy marched in the parade of the I. N. G. Co., K. First regiment Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Ryder spent Sunday in town with her father, Mr. Geo. H. Campbell. Mr. Ryder remained until Tuesday.

Baird & Warner's agent came out this week to make whatever repairs were necessary on the boxes to our new enlarged post-office.

The Highland Park Hotel turned away ten guests yesterday, unable to accommodate them, owing to the large amount of business.

Sir Thomas Lipton made a trip to Lake Forest this week to extend to the family of L. F. Swift his sympathy for the loss of their son.

Services will be held in the Baptist church Sunday morning. The ladies have made the church one of the most beautiful in town.

The Highland Park Musical Club held their last meeting Tuesday evening at Mrs. Jones studio. Miss Myrta Sweetland was hostess.

W. J. Hemstreet, who formerly lived on Park avenue, in the house now owned by Mr. Schumacher, died at his home in Chicago yesterday.

The High School Football team played the Lake Forest First team yesterday at Lake Forest. The score was 23-0 in favor of Lake Forest.

We are to have two new rows of lock boxes in the post-office. The office will then remain open to those having lock boxes until 10 p. m.

Mrs. P. A. Montgomery returned from Mt. Vernon, Ill., this week. Her niece, Genevive, accompanied her there and will remain for a short visit.

Last week occurred the Jewish New Year. From Sundown Monday evening, till the same hour Tuesday was New Years day. This year is 5664.

Mrs. Failmetzger and her son of Sheridan Park, spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Charles Schneider. Miss Rrohm of Boston, was also a guest.

J. Keller, a carpenter working for Chas. J. Streiber, the contractor, seriously injured his finger this week. He is obliged to carry it in a splint.

F. Willis Rice of the Lexington, Chicago, who has been staying a few days at the Moraine, gave the hotel a very fine "write up" in the Hotel Reporter.