

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1903.

NO. 19.

Fall Millinery. Ladies Bazaar. Mrs. George Bock is very sick. See W. E. Brand for Fire Insurance.

Miss John Green is very sick with an attack of shingles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashford Langill of Chicago, visited in town Sunday.

Mr. Harry Smith of Lake Forest, visited in the Park last Sunday.

Miss Ida Fry of Chicago, visited her sister, Mrs. C. Sack, on Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Mills of Lake Forest, visited friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. Fitch of La Salle, Ill., is visiting Mrs. G. W. Maerklin for a few days.

Mrs. N. J. Ross and son Herbert spent Sunday in town with Mrs. J. L. Miller.

A dance will be held every Thursday and Saturday evening at Fort Sheridan Park.

Japanese hand painted china at the Ladies Bazaar.

Mr. Orville St. Peter is building a very neat little brick cottage on Second Street.

Mr. R. E. Durham, who has been spending the summer here, returned to Chicago Friday.

Miss Mamie McCaffrey has been suffering the last week with inflammation of the eye.

Dr. Ingalls has rented the upper flat of Mr. Hill's house, formerly occupied by Mr. McNichols.

Miss Elmer Palmeter of Chicago, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Alex Scott of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Freil of Chicago, brother of Mrs. C. Sack, visited his sister here Sunday.

The Levin-Griffin Novelty Co., have received their letters patent on their parlor base ball game.

The Misses Ellen and Mamie Cox spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Chicago with Miss Myrtle Moore.

Mr. R. E. E. Durham of Chicago, made a flying visit to friends in town Tuesday, calling at the Ex-moor.

Mr. C. T. Ford's, brother, with his wife and two children, have been visiting with him for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Ed Warren is making quite extensive repairs to his cottage on Central Avenue, occupied by Mr. Hendee.

Mr. Bowers, the day telegraph operator at the Northwestern depot, has just returned from a two week's vacation.

Mr. Fred Kirby, nephew of Mr. G. Kirby, who has been working for Mr. Clow, has a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mr. G. W. Maerklin's mother, who has been visiting him for a short time, has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elvey of Austin, Ill., spent Saturday and Sunday in town with his brother, Mr. George Elvey.

The Highland Park Euchre Club opened their second annual meetings Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. Wm. Albright, on First St.

Mrs. Bender and daughters, Mrs. Eddy and Miss Blanche, have been visiting a short time with Mrs. Bender's daughter, Mrs. Samuel Lavin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald and children have moved to Ravenswood, Mr. Wm. Marooney and his sister Maggie, will also live with them.

There will be a business meeting of the high school alumni this evening at the high school building. All alumni are requested to be present.

Holiday Goods. Ladies Bazaar.

The annual reception at the Home for Baptist Missionaries' Children, will be held at Morgan Park on Tuesday of next week at the home.

Mr. McNichols, clerk at Sweetlands, has accepted a position as druggist at Rogers Park, to which place he moved his family this week.

St. Mary's sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Witten, on Thursday afternoon, with special refreshments, and a good time was enjoyed.

The C. C. C. will meet on Wednesday of next week, and the reception given the missionaries at the First Baptist church, Chicago, next Monday.

By the recent death of Alexander Clark, the electric road has lost one of its best promoters and friends. He was a man well liked by all with whom he came in contact.

Hon. George R. Lyon of Waukegan, is out in an announcement that he is not a candidate for the state senate. All right, this part of the county can name the man.

The library board at their meeting Friday night, elected Mrs. Everett, Father Morrissey and Mr. Charles Warren as a committee on construction for the new library.

NOTICE.

The undersigned will discontinue business after Oct 31st, and will sell the entire stock of gents and boys furnishings, regardless of former prices.

M. M. BOHL.

Mr Caldwell and daughter Nellie, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, visited his nephew, Mr. J. C. Duffy on Sunday. Mr. Caldwell was a pioneer of Chicago and lived for a time west of Deerfield.

Judge Watson is very low with two nurses and a doctor. There seems to be a complication of heart, liver and other diseases, which at his age, nearly seventy, makes it a difficult case

Mr. Ross Fletcher, who is superintending the contract for the spiles at the outlet of the sewer under construction at Waukegan, reports the work progressing well during this pleasant weather.

Mr. Clarence Norenberg, who won a four years scholarship from our high school and is attending school at Champaign, Ill., writes very favorable letters concerning his school work there.

It would be a move in the right direction if someone would establish a curfew bell in this town. It might be more pleasant for ladies passing on the street. They would be less liable to insult than now.

A writ of ejectment was served this week on the parties occupying the brick house referred to in our issue of last week. The house will be thoroughly renovated and will be ready to rent in a very short time.

Maybe some of the good people who wish the library on the present site are like the minister's little girl who undertook to repeat the twenty-third psalm and was heard to say, "The Lord is my shepherd and I knew what I want."

You should read the new advertisement of the Northwestern Department store, in this issue. Some rare bargains are offered in shoes, dry goods, furniture, etc. Manager Moses says he will move the goods, if low prices will do it.

A number of people surprised Mrs. John Snyder Tuesday evening. It was the occasion of Mrs. Snyder's birthday. Progressive Euchre was the order of the evening. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was indulged in.