

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

Hammond M R

May 1, 04.

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1903.

NO. 20.

The city council held an adjourned meeting Tuesday evening.

Mayor Evans will move his family up to the hotel for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Evans of Winnetka, visited friends in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Scott return to Chicago for the winter this week.

Mrs. Emma Boyd of Highwood, visited Mrs. J. L. Miller on Monday.

The Prudeville's left the Hayes house up on the Sheridan Road last week.

"Post no Bills," will be the sign up in the newly decorated post-office.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Evans spent Sunday in Humboldt Park with her sister.

What is the matter with Mr. A. J. Rudd? Was that "kick" a "horse on him."

Mr. Orville St. Peter moved into his new cottage on Second street, this week.

The Misses Pease of Lowell, Mass., have been visiting Mrs. R. P. Davidson.

Mrs. N. J. Ross of the Avenue House, Evanston, visited here Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Mauck of Hillsdale, Mich., visited Sunday with Miss Viola Shields.

The Royal Arcanum held their regular bi-monthly meeting last Monday evening.

Dan Sheahen is painting the exterior of his house and barn while the dry weather lasts.

Miss Mamie Cox and brother Grover went to Kenosha to spend last Saturday and Sunday.

The hydrants in town received a good coat of green paint this week. They were formerly red.

Mrs. Ross Fletcher has returned, after a prolonged visit in Michigan and Chicago with her aunt.

Mr. Wm. Dooley has beautified his home on Central avenue by the addition of a coat of paint.

Wanted—Second hand bicycle, boy's size. Address A. B. Box 465, NEWS-LETTER. 20.

The opening reception of the Highland Park Club was held last Thursday evening at the club house.

3,000 Dowieites passed through this place on the Northwestern trains Wednesday, enroute to New York.

Miss Nellie Ogilvie left Monday a. m. to spend the winter with her sister in Wilkeston, North Carolina.

Several prominent people of this place "took in" George Ade's play at the Studebaker last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheahen and family visited Mr and Mrs. A. H. Dannemark in Humboldt Park Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Stevens of Dixon, Ill., visited his brother Byron, manager of the Highland Park Hotel, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kellogg and daughter Harriette of Chicago, visited Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff Sunday.

The Saturday Musical met at the home of Miss Mildred Mihill last week, Miss Minnetta Miller as hostess.

The family of E. P. Russell on Laurel avenue, summer residents, left this week for their home in Chicago.

We are quite sure Mr. McNichols is still in town and liable to stay. Only women are privileged to change their minds."

Mrs. Sperline, her mother, Mrs. Keeney, and sister-in-law, Mrs.

Keeney, spent Sunday with Mrs. John Snyder.

Mrs. Mihill's sister, Miss Williams, who has been spending the summer here, returned Monday to Worcester, Ohio.

Mrs. J. W. Mauck visited friends in town yesterday. She was a guest at the American Association meeting held at Mrs. Gray's.

Mr. O. L. Olesen read a very able paper at the Highland Park Woman's Club on Tuesday, subject, "Life of Charles Dickens."

At their business meeting Saturday, the board of Highland Park Woman's club voted Mrs. Lucy Allen an honorary member.

John P. Kline is having an annex built on the east end of his boot and shoe store that will give him all the present room for a store and sales-room.

The funeral of Mrs. S. H. Harrington occurred here Sunday at 9:30 a. m., from the late residence. Burial was at Forest Home Cemetery.

Mrs. A. B. Cook of Chicago, wife of the senior member of the firm of Cook and McLain, took luncheon with Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff last Saturday.

City Attorney Smoot moved into his old home Thursday and settled down to a happy winter after a season's association with the 400 at the Moraine.

A Chicago physician claimed the buggy but not the horse and harness that was left in front of Judge Hibbard's residence one afternoon last week.

The city court had some three suits Thursday afternoon, and more Friday, while the Judge attended a special hearing Friday forenoon in Waukegan.

Mrs. M. R. Hammond's house on Central avenue, is one of the three houses on this street that have received a coat of paint during the past two weeks.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland arrived in Chicago at 8:15 a. m. Wednesday, and drove to the Auditorium Annex and dined before "loving" the city.

A number of Highland Park people attended the Sunday School convention at Antioch, Thursday and Friday of this week, and report a very enjoyable time.

A free library for circulation was sent out by the Highland Park Woman's Club this month. This makes the fourth library that has been sent out by this club.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hewitt and Mr. and Mrs. C. Chapman of Edgewater, gave Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Frazier a very pleasant surprise Sunday and spent the day.

Oct. 24, has been set as the day for voting in regard to an athletic field for the high school. The property in question is adjacent to the school on the north and west.

Next Friday the teachers of Lake Co., will visit the schools of this place. Parents of the children and residents here are requested to come and examine the work of the school.

Prof. R. L. Sandwick gave a very pleasing talk on the subject of an athletic field pursuant to interesting the ladies of Highland Park and therefore aid the voting on Oct. 24.

This community was surprised and shocked to hear that our popular states attorney, S. D. Talcott, was stricken suddenly Tuesday, and has been unconscious most of the time since, though his physicians hope for his recovery. His boyhood home was in Halfday.