A few young men and women can secure a full scholarship in a Chicago Business College at half rate, in exchange for a few hours work and earn money besides. Address this office, C. B. C. 14

On Tuesday evening the Sunday school association and teachers of this place give a supper in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. This is the time appointed for talking over the work and turning in the reports from the various conventions held during the past year and to plan a systematic campaign of work for the ensuing year. This is decidedly a move in the right direction and should receive the aid of all good people.

For Sale—One oak office desk, one heating stove, one ladies bicycle, two show cases, cheap, at Bohl's Haberdashery. 21.

On Sunday evening will occur the regular monthly missionary meeting of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union at the church, at 6:45. A very interesting program is prepared and a large attendance is desired. All are welcome. It is expected that Mr. Geo. D. Rodgers of Pontiac, Ill., will preach morning and evening. He has already proved himself, by his work last Sunday, a very able and interesting speaker. If you have the opportunity do not fail to hear him.

For Sale—A jewel base burner, used but a short time. Have furnace, reason for selling. Call at 4th house north of water tower. 21.

Mr. Palmer A. Montgomery returned from Old Mexico last Saturday. He is treasurer of the Halcien da de Corrales Co., of Jimenez, state of Chihuahua, Old Mexico. This company owns and controls 362,000 acres of land, a tract which would reach from Chicago to Kenosha. 40,000 acres are under irrigation. Water is obtained from three rivers and there is a canal of one hundred miles. One stock of corn which Mr. Montgomery saw there was 16½ feet high, two ears of which weighed 5 lb, and the lowest ear on the stalk was 12 feet from the ground.

For Sale—Columbia Bakery and Cafe. Doing a paying business; must sell the coming week at a bargain, owing to change of business. Cash or part time. 21.

Do not forget the Raymond course of lectures at the high school Monday evening. This is the second one in the series. Those who awarded themselves of the opportunity to hear Mr. Raymond's first lecture, were certainly well repaid, as he is a most delightful and entertaining speaker. Prof. Sandwick has a few more tickets he would be glad to give to parents and friends of the school. The teachers are very much pleased at the interest shown this year by the parents in the work of the school, and hope that this will not only remain but increase during the school year.

Everything must be sold of gents and boys' furnishings at cost, to close them out at Bohl's Haberdashery. 21.

It was noticeable last Sunday that the corner, spoken of in our last issue, was not infested with the rowdy element as on previous days—but there is some very efficient work yet to be done by our police force. It is a pity a lady cannot walk to church Sunday evening without being grossly insulted by boys not yet out of their teens and as was the case last Sunday on one of our principal streets; most insulting language was used by a boy not large enough to be in his teens. A lady is not near as liable to insult in the wicked city of Chicago as she is to attempt to pass the "bums" on the quiet streets of Highland Park, as early as 7 o'clock in the evening. Why is this?

—Mr. Lester Price's Xmas piece sold to the Curtis Publishing Co., and will probably appear in the November Ladies' Home Journal.

Hundreds of business houses, who have applied to the Spencerian Business College, 620 Davis street Evanston, for graduates in stenography and bookkeeping could not be supplied. Over 500 situations per year are open and offered to graduates of this school, but cannot be filled. To meet this demand the Spencerian Business College will agree to place a limited number of bright young men and women in positions, paying not less than $40 per month to start with, upon graduation from the complete commercial course, or failing to do so will refund their tuition. Enter now. Write today for further information. 14

Will sell my well improved farm in southern Minnesota for half price. Must sell; fine home. Write me at once. Andrew Olson, Danvers, Minn. 21-22.
