

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

Hammond M-R

May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1903.

NO. 23.

Elsen Rice has tonsillitis.
Miss Dorothy Clark has a sore throat.

Mr. Jacob Antis, of Deerfield, died Wednesday morning of pleurisy.

The City Council held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening.

The Royal Arcanum hold their regular meeting next Monday night.

The Mystic Workers of the World held a special meeting Tuesday evening.

The Christian Culture Class will meet at the usual place next Tuesday.

Mr. S. M. Coe and wife left Tuesday for Daytona, Fla., for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bradford, of Chicago, visited Sunday at Mr. Fred Frasier's.

The family of Mr. G. W. Bysong have moved into Mr. Thos. Howe's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher have engaged rooms at the Highland Park Hotel.

Mr. D. P. Sheahen has gone to Fond du Lac, Wis., to attend his sister's wedding.

Mr. Arthur P. Wycoff attended the football game at Madison, Wis., last Saturday.

Mr. John Rudolph has accepted the position as policeman in place of Mr. John Dahl.

Mr. G. H. Campbell's daughter, Mrs. Ryder, of Chicago, visited her father this week.

The regular meeting of the Mystic Workers of the World will occur next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. M. Dooley and Mrs. D. P. Sheahen visited Sunday with friends in Lake Forest.

Wanted—Plain sewing, either at home or will go out. Address Dressmaker, News-Letter.

Mrs. Dr. Dale Sweetland is very ill with cerebro spinal meningitis. Her recovery is doubtful.

Mr. and Mrs. Small have returned to their home in the Park after a pleasant summer at the lakes.

Highland Park is getting famous. All kinds of Chicago news reporters swarmed the streets this week.

We are pleased to report Mrs. Dale Sweetland is some better this morning, though not out of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McMullen and family left Wednesday for Redlands, Cal. to spend the winter.

H. A. Troxeland family have returned to Highland Park from a summer outing at Elora, Ontario, Canada.

Mrs. Willis Cummings and her son, of Englewood, are visiting her father-in-law, Mr. G. B. Cummings.

Mrs. L. J. Rice, who has been ill with la grippe, is doing nicely, and it is hoped to see her about in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin of Chicago, have been visiting for a week with Mr. J. H. Sheahen's family.

Mr. D. P. Sheahen took another 'route' this week and went to Fond du Lac, Wis., to spend a few days and rest up.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett are back in their home again after a summer elsewhere. They returned Saturday.

Mrs. H. J. Bowen and sons, who have been visiting Mrs. A. W. Fletcher, have gone to Colorado for the winter.

Miss Blanche Shearer attended the football game at Madison, Wis., last Saturday, while on a visit to her home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovett of north Chicago, visited Sunday with the family of Mr. Alex Robertson on St. Johns avenue.

For Sale—A large Red Cross square parlor heater. Inquire at News-Letter office. 22

The public school board failed to have a quorum last Tuesday evening and again adjourned until next Monday evening.

Highland Park has covered herself all over with glory for the quiet way in which Hallowe'en was observed. The hoodlum was not in evidence.

Several hundred sample copies of this weeks issue of the News-Letter have been sent to prominent literary people throughout the United States.

BOARDERS WANTED—Room and board in private home. Steam heat and electric light. Modern conveniences. Inquire at News-Letter office. 22

Mr. G. S. Able, of the 20th, Co. A, will take a ten days' furlough next week to visit friends in Southern Illinois before his departure for the Phillipines.

A new undertaker from Deerfield is expected to locate in Highland Park, though Mr. Prior says he has not buried "a living soul" for two years.

A man behaving most indecently has annoyed North Shore towns for the past few weeks. He rides a red bicycle, and is either insane or is a criminal at large.

Mr. Brannan has been attending the Lutheran convention of Illinois ministers in Mt. Pleasant. Mrs. Bannan has had charge of the school during his absence.

November 10th there will a benefit entertainment in the Mystic Hall parlors, corner First street and Central avenue. A very interesting program will be rendered.

Mrs. Wm. Danner, a former resident of Highland Park, and who now resides at Glencoe, is so ill that she expects to spend several months in a Chicago hospital.

Mrs. H. M. Davis of Milwaukee, Wis., stopped in the park last Saturday on her return trip from California, for a short visit with her nephew, A. E. Dorsey.

The Highland Park Woman's Club will hold their next Study Class on Tuesday at 2.30 P. M. Mrs. Benjamin Fessenden's subject will be "Childhood in Dickens."

Chicago played Madison, Wis., at the latter field last Saturday. The score was 15 to 6 in favor of Chicago. A number of people went from here to witness the game.

St. Margaret's Guild, of Trinity Episcopal church, met at the residence of the Misses Boulton, Monday afternoon. Orders for comforters and all kinds of fancy work are solicited.

Many rumors have been afloat concerning the kidnapping of a child from the Russell school last Saturday. Investigation has shown that the "kidnapping" was rightful possession of the child.

Milkmen have their trials. The latest is of a woman who offered to sell twenty-five bottles, lent her, at divers and sundry times by the milkman, for five cents apiece. They cost the milkman seven cents apiece and he bought them to keep.

Mrs. Benjamin Fessenden, whose daughter's wedding invitations were recalled the day before the wedding, and the marriage "called off" over telephone by the prospective son-in-law, is well known in this locality as Mrs. Laura Dayton Fessenden, who has been a newspaper correspondent and published some children's books. She is a pleasant little woman with literary aspirations.