

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M R
May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1903.

NO. 24.

Insure your property with Wm E. Brand.

Chaplain H. C. Gavitt is on leave and is with his family at Highwood.

Snow fell for a few minutes last Thursday, but melted as soon as it fell.

Mr. L. J. Rice has been sick and under the doctors care the last two weeks.

Mrs. C. T. Ford entertained the ladies Sewing Circle Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lloyd M. Bergen left last week for St. Petersburg, Fla., for the winter.

The trouble in the New York election seemed to be that Tammany had Tammany votes.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Boyington are the happy parents of a baby girl, born this week. Boyington

Postmaster Fletcher and wife have taken rooms at the Highland Park Hotel for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reesman entertained Mr. Fred Insall of Evanston at dinner last Tuesday.

The North American Union held their regular meeting in the lodge rooms Thursday evening.

Rev. A. Hafele and wife, formerly of the Park and now at Maple Park, visited friends here on Tuesday.

It is reported by reliable authority that Lieut. Phillips is at Fort Sheridan after a ten days leave of absence.

The Saturday musical will meet next Saturday with Miss Elenore Gregory, at her Prairie avenue home Chicago.

Mrs. D. C. Bannister and Mrs. Frank Restorick are visiting friends in the Park for a few days and are staying with Mrs. Keller.

Prof. J. P. White of Lake Forest University, will preach at the Highland Park Baptist church, Sunday evening at the usual hour.

Master Earle Sheahen was out of school this week with sore throat. We are glad to report him much improved.

Messrs White, Wescott, Todd and Bothun accompanied Prof. Jessie Smith to the teachers convention at Joliet.

The entire Pacific coast has been struck by a blizzard. It was the worst storm Montana has experienced for years.

A very interesting football game occurred at the grounds of the Northwestern Military Academy last Saturday.

Our popular electric R. R. conductor Frank Sheahen, took a "lay off" last Saturday. A slight attack of grippe was the cause.

Next week the 20th Infantry will leave Fort Sheridan for the Philippines. About fourteen brides will go on this trip to the islands.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Dale Sweetland is improving, and hope she will soon have recovered from her illness.

An Evanston negro applied at the department of public works for a marriage license. Perhaps he will apply to the life saving crew for his divorce.

We are sorry to chronicle the fact that Mr. Frank Siljestrom of Oakwood avenue, has been on the sick list for the past month and is still confined to his bed.

Prof. Frank H. Hall, former principal of the Waukegan high school, has edited some first and second grade arithmetics which are being used in the schools.

The Waukegan high school played the Northwestern Military Academy last Saturday on the Military grounds. The score was 62 to 0 in favor of the home team.

There was no school last Friday, for some of the grades. Prof. Jessie Smith went to the northern Illinois teachers association at Joliet, Ill.

Tuesday afternoon the Misses Francis and Small entertained a number of their little friends on the occasion of one of the little Miss's birthday.

The dreaded street car strike is at last upon Chicago but it is hoped some amicable settlement will soon be reached without blood shed or injury to anyone.

Mrs. J. H. Arps, wife of our former depot agent and now living at Carey Station, Ill., is visiting Mrs. Alex Robertson and other friends in town for a week.

Robert W. Ney, former resident of Waukegan, has been appointed manager of the wire mills of the Cleveland District of the American Steel and Wire Co.

The work on the streets is progressing rapidly. One can scarcely walk out without seeing some new street being improved. Ravine avenue is the latest noted.

Mrs. B. A. Smith visited friends in Park Ridge, her former home, last Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Smith is the mother of our efficient public school principal.

Wednesday afternoon of this week the children were excused from the public school as soon as they assembled, owing to the heating apparatus being out of order.

The street car strikers informed Postmaster Coyne of Chicago, that they would continue the operation of the United States Mail cars during the suspension of work.

Mrs. Greenslade was to have entertained a number of ladies Wednesday afternoon but was obliged to cancel the engagement on account of the death of an aunt in Chicago.

Mrs. Frederick Morgan Steele will give a cotillion at the Highland Park club, Tuesday evening, December 29th, for her daughter Elizabeth and visiting friends.

The sewing circle of St. Mary's church met with Mrs. D. P. Sheahen on Thursday. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Frank Gallagher on St Johns avenue Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bacon on Central avenue, lost their ten weeks old baby last week. The funeral occurred on Thursday. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. Geo. D. Rodgers of Pontiac, Ill., who has been called to the Highland Park Baptist church as their new pastor, and will take charge Dec. 1, was in town today looking for a house.

The first German locomotives to be imported to this country arrived at Boston, Mass., this week. There are eight of them and weigh 40 tons each. Most of the engines will be shipped by rail to Montreal.

A report was current that the Chicago and Northwestern Railway had lost $30,000 in its Zion City business and hence the appointment of a new non-Dowieite agent at Zion station, but this report is wholly without foundation.

Mr. John Lincoln Brown, a young newspaper man of promise, formerly of Evanston, accepted a position this week, on the editorial staff of the Kenosha Daily Gazette. He was formerly on the reportorial staff of the Evanston Index.

The young peoples societies of the different churches will hold a union meeting at the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 6:15. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Good speakers will be on hand and an interesting programme is prepared.