

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1903.

NO. 25.

Hayti uses for its free schools one-sixth of its revenues.

The Kenosha Daily Gazette has resumed publication.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Yerkes are visiting in New York.

Miss Alice Roosevelt visited friends in Lake Forest on Saturday last week.

Parties recently visited Waukegan to look up a site in which to erect a modern theatre.

Gov. Yates has issued the usual proclamation, naming Nov. 26 as Thanksgiving day.

For Sale—A large Red Cross square parlor heater. Inquire at News-Letter office. 23

Prof. J. Bournigne has opened a dancing class for children at the Winter Club, Lake Forest.

Out of 450 cadets at West Point Military Academy, 400 are members of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a handkerchief and fancy work bazaar Friday, Dec. 4th, in Library hall.

The special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of States Attorney, S. D. Talcott, will be held Dec. 10.

Gov. Yates has appointed Leslie P. Hanna of Waukegan, public administrator of Lake Co., to succeed D. Talcott, deceased.

The newspaper circles of Evanston lost one of their most popular members in the death of Mr. James Hamilton Stoll, Nov. 8.

The largest pay roll ever paid out at the steel and wire mills at Waukegan, was paid Nov. 14, the amount aggregating $56,668.98.

The Republicans of Pulaski Co., were caught napping a week ago and the prohibition party carried the county for the first time.

Dr. Pomeroy has been summoned to testify in a New York court. He will return Friday morning, Nov. 27th.

The will of Charles B. Farwell has been probated, the personal property not to exceed $1,780,000 and real estate, worth 20,000.

The Polish settlement in North Chicago will shortly erect a church and school building. Six lots for a building site have been secured.

Mr. Jesse Mockley of Lake Forest, has a Belgian Hare who gave birth to twenty four young ones which were all strong and healthy.

Thomas L. Moore of Kenosha, the veteran conductor of the Northwestern R'y., has been retired permanently by the officials, on a monthly pension.

The interviewed man who denies that he said it, after seeing it in cold type, will remain for the graduates of the college of journalism as a horrible example.—Gazette.

Next Tuesday Nov. 24, the Highland Park Womans' Club hold their regular study class. Mrs. Francis Crane Lillie will give "a plea for the inconspicuous child."

There is every indication of a bank's being opened in Lake Forest. Over a hundred shares over the capital stock were subscribed for. It is intended to open by Dec. 1.

It is reported that Judge Charles H. Donnelly of Woodstock, now presiding in our circuit court, has been mentioned as a probable candidate for governor.

Word has been received at the White House from Gov. Taft that he will be ready to assume his new duties at the office as secretary of war some time in January.

We have had a very efficient addition to our force in the post office this week. Miss Dodo Fessler, who has been during the past summer at the Exmoor, is the new girl.

The city council of Lake Forest has refused to grant the Electric Road the privilege of putting a switch track on the viaduct. This means for the public long waits, rain, snow and cold included.

Thirty or forty carloads of rails for the C. & M. Railroad tracks from Lake Bluff to North Chicago have been delivered at North Chicago by the E. J. & E. R'y.

A bricklayer named Burmeister, who, though innocent of the crime for which he was sentenced, has just been released from prison at Berlin, Germany, after he has served 26 years.

The fifteen year old son of Prof. Hubert A. Howe, instructor in astronomy at the Denver University, has just discovered at the upper edge of the Lunis disk a new group of sunspots.

An engineers club has been organized at Evanston among the students and it is to be hoped this is only the beginning of a permanent school of engineering in connection with Northwestern.

A combined bazaar, supper and entertainment will be given this evening at Wilmette Hall, Wilmette, for the benefit of the Kenilworth Episcopal church. Supper from 5:30 to 7:30.

Mr. Ross Fletcher had his hand badly hurt in a fall while driving this week. His hand caught in the rope and he was drawn up on the driver a number of feet, but as soon as noticed the rope slackened and he fell to the ground but was not seriously injured.

Gross Point has been brought again before the public in a campaign begun by the anti-saloon league and the Evanston Municipal league to exterminate the saloon. Proceedings have already been instituted against twenty-five, said to be within the four mile limit.

The will of Mrs. Jane McAllister, who died at Waukegan, leaves an estate of $200,000, mostly to relatives, about fifty living at Waukegan and near Milburn. The bequests are from 1,000 to 12,000.

The inquest over the remains of Simson Artneau, who met death in the Northwestern yards at Waukegan while replacing a brake under the cars, was held Nov. 13. The jury did not specify that it was accident in leaving it open, so it will likely go to court.

There is a report abroad that after June 1, 1904, the Northwestern R'y., will demand fare for the wives and children of their 2,000 employees, who live in the suburbs and it is possible that the employees may be made to pay half fare. The employees feel that this is one way of reducing their salaries.

From Nov. 10 to Dec. 20th, the shooting of quail is permissible. The quail planted a year ago in this county are doing fairly well and it is to be hoped the hunter will use a little care not to exterminate whole coveys, and only a few birds be taken from a flock. A little care and the county will be fully stocked with this very desirable game.

Rabbits are not protected by the new game law of Illinois, which has been in effect since last July, and a license is not necessary. Any one can kill them any time of the year desired. The license law refers to game, and rabbits are not considered game. The attorney general says, "it is not necessary to take out a license to hunt and kill rabbits in Illinois."