

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1903.

NO. 1.

Read your home-paper and keep posted.

Insure your property with Wm E. Brand.

Mrs. O. E. Hendee was on the sick list this week.

Dr. Pomeroy has returned from his eastern trip.

Little Marie Greenslade is suffering with the grippe.

Mr. Fred Obee, who has been very ill, is out of danger.

Mr. Fritz Bahr has lemons on the tree at the greenhouse.

Mrs. H. L. Requa, who has been very ill, is convalescent.

The city hall has had a "clarin up day" and looks better.

Mrs. Peter Hutter is still confined to the house with the grippe.

One dollar a year, when paid in advance, pays for this paper.

Mr Charles Wabash Hansen of Evanston, was in town Saturday

Coasting on the hill at Central and McGovern streets is of the best.

Miss Addie Inman was out of school Tuesday on account of sickness.

The C. C. C. will meet on Tuesday next with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Warren.

Friends of Mr. W. A. Wilson were glad to see him in town last Tuesday.

Byron Hendee is very sick with pneumonia. Dr. Bergen is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Evans visited their son Irving at Culver, Ind., over Thanksgiving.

The Presbyterians gave a bag-sale Tuesday afternoon and evening at the church.

Highland Park has a new policeman, from Mr. Bahr's greenhouse. His name is Avery.

The Saturday musical will meet next week with Miss Hallie Gavitt at the usual hour.

The addition of the Electric Road power station at Winnetka, is very artistic and useful.

Mr. Ross Fletcher is building a breakwater for Mr. R. F. Pratt, north of Vine Avenue.

The Vesper choir will meet this evening at the residence of Mr. H. S. Vail on Laurel Ave.

Mrs. A. Bock, the popular lady merchant of our town, is recovering from a very severe cold.

Mrs. J. W. Mauck of Hinsdale, Mich., visited Miss Dodo Fesler for a few days this week.

Mr. Frank Sheaben and Mr. Hicks were among those who visited the fat stock show Thursday.

Mrs. J. L. Miller has been on the sick list this week, much to the regret of her numerous friends.

Mr. Hamm of Ann Arbor, visited over Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Clark of this place.

New boxes are here for the post-office, which will afford increased facilities for prompt mail delivery.

The public school board held their regular meeting last Friday evening and adjourned for lack of a quorum.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Huber have been visiting relatives and friends in Darien, Wis., for the past month.

Mr. F. M. Evans has new buck-wheat flour in now. Try ten lbs, of it and don't forget to order a can of log-cabin maple syrup.

The prayer meeting at the Highland Park Baptist church has been changed from Friday to Wednesday evening at the usual hour.

Postmaster Fletcher and wife attended the fat stock show Thursday, and dined in the evening with Mrs. Grace Ainsworth of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. White will leave during December for a visit in Japan and other places in the far east.

The Gas Company are putting in pipes under the low bridge on Laurel avenue, preparatory to paving the street.

The C. C. C's met Monday in Chicago, as many of the class were to attend the social union meeting of Tuesday

Mayor Evans and Byron Stevens manager of the Highland Park hotel, attended the fat stock show Thursday.

Next Monday evening occurs the next to the last lecture of the Raymond lecture course. The subject will be "Paris."

Mr. F. M. Evans on Central Avenue, has had a hot water heating put in his house. Mr. Ed Laing did good work.

Judge Hibbard has taken the agency and will receive subscriptions for all the leading papers and magazines.

Mrs. Warden of Connorsville, Indiana, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs Dale Sweetland, will return home next week.

Miss Florence entertained at her home last Sunday evening a number of friends from Wilmette, Chicago and Highland Park.

Levin & Larson are local agents for Story & Clark, pianos and Singer Sewing Machines, and will save you money on either one.

Mr. F. M. Evans has three car loads of canned goods and is retailing them for what they are worth at wholesale today. He can do this because he bought last spring and canned goods have advanced in price.

The architect for All Soul's church at Evanston, is Miss Marian L. Mahoney of Chicago. She is also superintending the building of the church.

Mrs. Chas. Stoker gave a card party Tuesday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Danielson, Mrs Brown and Miss Mabel Mentyer.

Miss Mina Bell will read a paper on "Dickens' Christmas Stories," at the next study class of the Highland Park Woman's club, Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. Wm. Freeborn of Sault de Ste Maria, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher, Mr Freeborn is buying cattle at the fat stock show to ship to the "zoo"

Mrs. Charles E. Geary of Boone, Iowa, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Richards, of this place. She also spent a few days with her husband's parents in Milwaukee.

A theatre party from Highland Park, led by Miss Florence Genest, attended McVicker's theatre in Chicago a few evenings since and pronounced "Checkers" a good play.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazier entertained a number of the young people Thursday evening. Games were played and refreshments served. A most enjoyable evening is reported.

If you wish to give a Christmas present that will be appreciated for the entire year, send your friend a years subscription of a popular magazine. Albert Larson is agent for all periodicals 26.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McClure, from Pittsburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dorsey. Mrs. McClure has traveled around the world and has gathered much interesting information in regard to foreign lands. Her friends are hoping that she will give a public talk on her travels before leaving our town.