

Additional Locals

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ford gave a euchre party last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sampson and daughter Ruth left Thanksgiving morning for California to spend the winter near Los Angeles and Santa Barbara.

Mr. Clement Smoot came home from Ann Arbor to spend Thanksgiving and see the Michigan vs. Chicago football game. The score was 28 to 0 in favor of Michigan.

Mr. Paul Parliment and family arrived in Highland Park last Sunday and took possession this week of their new home, the Palmer A. Montgomery place, which they have purchased.

Miss Helen Rudolph is honored by having a new series of pink carnation named in her honor by our florist. It is a cross between the $10,000 Lawson and the common daybreak.

Rev. Mr. Rogers, the new Baptist minister, will preach next Sunday and should be welcomed with a full house. He will occupy Mr. Alford's house on Second street, next to Mr. Alford's home.

A horse attached to the Noerenberg & Hintz delivery wagon fell down on the hill at the north end of McGovern street last Saturday. This hill is especially dangerous for horses in slippery weather.

Mr. Fritz Bahr has a new variety of the Boston fern called the "Pierson," in honor of the originator of that variety, a Mrs. Pierson of Tarrytown on the Hudson. This fern is the handsomest in this part of the country.

Mr. Julius Reno, who was picked up ill and delirious on the streets of Winnetka last week and brought to the Highland Park hotel, left Sunday night for the Evanston hospital. While here he had a trained nurse and was attended by Dr. Bergen.

Miss Smith, a sister of Mr. Jesse Smith, superintendent of public schools, has been a great advantage to the young people of Highland Park, in the year that she has been here, by stimulating their interest in the study of music. She is an excellent teacher as well as a most popular one.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. Henry Frye last Friday to celebrate his 81st birthday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Frye, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Langill, Miss Ida Frye of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren of Highland Park.

Miss Fairbanks, a daughter of the late N. K. Fairbanks, was married Wednesday evening, to Mr. Reynolds, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. B. Carpenter. The house was so elaborately decorated as to be a study in artistic floral effects. Hundreds of palms, carnations, roses, chrysanthemums and boxes of smilax were used most effectively.

At a meeting of citizens held at the residence of Mr. Douglas Smith last Monday evening, over eight thousand dollars was pledged toward a fund for the erection of a new Congregational church building in Winnetka. It is hoped by the promoters of the movement, that sufficient funds will be raised to enable them to commence building operations by May first.

Mr. Geo. Obenoff, M. McBride and other farmers in western Lake Co., complain of a new swindle. An agent talks the farmer into contracting for an electric light plant to cost only $65. Soon after another agent calls and shows the farmer that the contract calls for $65 for each light, from which contract the last agent will release the farmer on the payment of whatever he will stand for, all the way from $13 to $50.

The Bi-monthly Euchre Club held its first meeting on Tuesday night at the home of Jno. S. Reesman. Mrs. C. P. Sullivan captured the ladies first prize, a handsome silver butter knife, while Mr. Fred Green-slade carried off the gentlemen's prize, a napkin-ring. Miss Mae Welsh of Lake Forest, was given the ladies booby, while Mr. Herman Denzel won the gentlemen's booby prize. After refreshments, a short musical followed. The next meeting will take place on Dec. 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denzel.

Henry K. Coale asks donations of books, magazines, or other reading matter, old or new for the United States Army Hospital, at Bayard, New Mexico, where there are over three hundred soldiers suffering from consumption. Kindly send packages to the vacant store, (next to Purdy's,) on Tuesday, Dec. 8, between 7:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. Mr. Coale will be there to receive them, and pack for shipment. The quartermaster's wagon from Fort Sheridan will call Tuesday morning for any packages that it may not be convenient to send to the store. Please notify Mr. Coale by phone, 861, Monday evening, or by card Tuesday morning early, if you wish quartermaster's wagon to call. This is an opportunity for everyone to help give these brave fellows a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

LARGE STOCK OF WINTER SHOES

At Prices to Meet Competition.

J. A. BLONDAHL, UP-TO-DATE SHOE STORE

JUST RECEIVED

FULL LINE OF Warm House Slippers,
SPECIAL PRICE,
Ladies' $1.00
Children's 85c

SEND YOUR LAUNDRY TO THE
RELIABLE STEAM LAUNDRY

ST. PETER BROS., Proprietors

TELEPHONE 603

AND WE WILL SEND FOR YOUR BUNDLE AND DELIVER IT.

Kuist's
Hardware Store

FOR A FULL LINE OF TINWARE
ENAMELWARE
HARDWARE
At reasonable prices
McDonald Block Central Ave.

WHEN YOU BUY
GROCERIES
Fruits and Vegetables

You want them good and fresh and that is the kind we handle

NOERENBERG & HINTZ
W. Central Avenue.
Phone 651.