

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL. May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1903.

NO. 3.

Insure your property with Wm E. Brand.

The high school closed yesterday for the holidays.

Mrs. Hibbard spent a few days last week in Chicago.

Mr. W. E. Brand and son Roland left Thursday morning for England.

Mr. M. Blattel has been quite sick for a week with stomach trouble.

Mr. L. J. Rice's mother is very ill with la grippe at her home in Ohio.

The Salvation Army will furnish Christmas dinners for 10,000 poor persons.

The Bi-monthly Euchre club met Monday evening with Mrs. John Snyder.

The Highland Park Euchre club met Wednesday evening with Mr. S. Levin.

Mrs. A. O. Mason returned Tuesday from a visit to her brother in Kewanee, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ford took the first prizes at Mrs. John Snyder's Euchre club.

Miss Martha Bergraff has been visiting Mrs. L. B. Hibbard during the past week.

Mrs. Judge Hibbard's sister is visiting her from Worcester, Mass., for a few weeks.

Mr. John Wycoff returned to town on Wednesday to spend the holidays at his home.

The Vesper choir will meet this evening at the Presbyterian church instead of at Major Vail's.

The board of the Highland Park Woman's club met with Mrs. D. M. Erskine, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Henry Prior is forming a band for campaign purposes. They met Monday evening to organize.

Mr. Fritz Bahr's children have been suffering from very severe sore throats, but are now out of danger.

The Baptist church will hold their Christmas entertainment Christmas eve.

The Episcopal church will hold their Christmas exercises Christmas eve.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Green leave this week to spend the winter in Chicago.

Our popular florist, Mr. Babr, has some beautiful Roman hyacinths in full bloom.

Mrs. E. B. Palmer of Park avenue, has been taking X Ray treatment for rheumatism.

The Prohibition National Convention will be held June 29, the place not yet decided on.

Mr. Cos, civil engineer of the new road west of town left Highland Park Wednesday.

Mrs. John Snyder visited her sister, Mrs. G. Dauneneark, at Wilmette on Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Sheahan visited her sister, Mrs. G. Dauneneark at Wilmette, on Wednesday.

Miss Annie Rudolph spent a few days at Wilmette, with her sister, Mrs. G. Dauneneark.

On Sunday, Dec. 27, the post-office will be closed all day on account of the putting in of the new boxes.

The last of the Raymond lectures will occur Monday evening at the high school, subject, "London."

Mrs. S. A. Wooster of Charlotte, Vt., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. B. Hibbard, during the past week.

The Central Lake County Teachers' Reading Circle will meet this afternoon at the Rockefeller school house.

Now "is your time". Every hat to be sold at actual cost for the holidays at the Ladies Bazaar—Mrs. G. Bohl.

Now "is your time". Every hat to be sold at actual cost for the holidays at the Ladies Bazaar—Mrs. G. Bohl.

The Crane Co., will give out in Christmas presents this year, an average of $50 to each person working for the firm.

The Evanston team played the Highland Park boys an indoor baseball game Saturday evening and won the game.

The next meeting of the Bi-monthly Euchre club, will take place at the home of Fred Greenslade, Dec. 29.

The Presbyterians will give their Christmas entertainment Wednesday evening. A very delightful program will be rendered.

It was a "killing" day down on the Sheahan farm Wednesday. Several fine fat hogs were put in condition for cooking purposes.

Rev. Mr. Rodgers is recovering so rapidly from La Grippe the Baptist church people hope to see him in their pulpit next Sunday.

Rev. B. B. Sutcliff, of Moody Institute, preached at the Baptist church last Sunday morning. Rev. A. E. Moody preached in the evening.

Mrs. Francis Van Schaick Clinch became the mother of a bright baby girl last Wednesday. Congratulations are numerous and heartfelt.

Levin & Larson are local agents for Story & Clark, pianos and Singer Sewing Machines, and will save you money on either one.

Miss Williams chaperoned several of the high school pupils Tuesday evening to hear "The Merchant of Venice" at the Illinois, in Chicago.

Master Earle Iredale of Evanston, visited his nephew, Lyman Prior last Saturday and played in the Corinthian team of which he is a member.

Miss Gould of Piqua, Ohio, has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Marble, at the Highland Park hotel during the past week.

Mrs. Alexander Cook of Chicago and Miss Blanche Newton of Ravenswood, lunched in Highland Park Saturday, with Miss E. E. Wycoff.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Baptist church, met with Mrs. F. P. Hawkins, Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. An interesting program was given.

The Military hop at the Academy last Saturday evening was attended by a goodly company of townspeople who report a thoroughly successful affair.

Miss Lillian Vetter, who has been quite ill for the past four weeks, suffering with an abscess in her head, is improving and will soon be able to be out again.

Sunday, Dec. 27, a very interesting Christmas Vesper service will be rendered at the Presbyterian church at 3 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

The "Ladies Bazaar," respectfully invites Christmas buyers to inspect its stock of holiday goods. Many can avoid the terrible rush of the larger city by giving us a first call.—Mrs. G. Bohl.

The Evangelical Lutheran church on Central avenue, will hold their Christmas entertainment Christmas eve, and also on Christmas morning there will be services at their church.

Tell Santa Claus our store is brim full and running over with Christmas bargains in endless variety. Save yourself the annoyance and inconvenience of the downtown Chicago jam and crash. Bring us your wants and you will be satisfied with both prices and qualities. Remember that during the holidays as well as at other times the Ladies' Bazaar—Mrs. G. Bohl, Proprietor, Highland Park, Ill.