

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M R

May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1903.

NO. 4.

Evanston is trying to annex Niles and New Trier.

Mr. Fred Frazier is quite ill with catarrh of the stomach.

Henry Memory and daughter will leave December 31 for an extended trip.

Mrs. F. B. Williams of Central avenue, has been quite ill for a few days.

Mr. Henry Memory has been sick with rheumatism during the past few days.

Miss Bliss, one of the high school teachers, will spend the holidays in New York.

Mr. Averill was made a full fledged Y. Y. C. at the last meeting of the club.

Fifteen linemen of the Western Union are stopping at the Highland Park Hotel.

Last Saturday was the birthday and wedding anniversary of County Clerk Hendee.

While W. E. Brand is absent in England, insure your property with David A. Holmes.

The funeral of Miss Ellen Fay occurred Wednesday morning from St. Mary's church.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Reesman spent Christmas with Mrs. Reesman's parents in Chicago.

The Royal Arcanum Lodge holds its regular meeting next Monday night at their hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frasier will visit relatives and friends at Elgin during the holidays.

Dr. Roger T. Harley of Chicago, visited here Sunday with his uncle, the Rev. Geo. D. Rogers.

Miss E. Gertrude Johnston, who has been for some time in Washington D. C., has returned to the Park.

A new furnace has been placed in the post office, which adds to the comfort of the public and employes.

Some of our boys played the Lake Forest team at Hockey Tuesday and were beaten, the score being 4-2.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher attended the Masonic Lodge banquet at Evanston on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. L. Hill, who has been stopping at the Highland Park hotel, left Thursday morning for New York.

Mr. McGregor Adams and family will leave about Jan 14, for the south to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fletcher attended the Masonic installation of officers at Evanston on Tuesday evening.

Mr. A. H. Meyer of the Northwestern Military Academy, is spending the holidays at the Highland Park hotel.

Mr. Clarence Noerenberg, who took the high school scholarship at the University of Illinois, is home for vacation.

Miss Molly S. Bottum left Thursday morning for Ypsilanti, Mich., where she will spend the holidays with relatives.

As is their annual custom, the North Shore Electric Company presented each employe with a fine Christmas present.

The mid-week prayer meeting of the Baptist church, to which everyone is invited, occurs every Wednesday evening at 7:45.

We are glad to note the fact that Master Byron Hendee, who has been so seriously ill with pneumonia, is on the way to recovery.

The Northwestern Railroad has been testing a new style of bumping post for track terminals. It is said to be a decided success.

Miss E. E. Wycoff attended the rendition of the Messiah by the Evanston Musical club last Thursday evening at that place.

Miss H. D. Stevenson, a former teacher in the public school, is here visiting during the holidays with Miss Whitney on Park avenue.

Levin & Larson are local agents for Story & Clark, pianos and Singer Sewing Machines, and will save you money on either one. *

Mr. E. Marble of Northwestern Military Academy, will spend his vacation with his mother who is boarding at the Highland Park Hotel.

The Fireman's Ball held in Goldberg's Opera House last week, was a great success, the receipts reaching far beyond their fondest hopes.

The public schools closed Wednesday afternoon for a two week's vacation. Most of the teachers have left town to spend the holidays.

The vesper services at the Presbyterian church Sunday, Dec. 27, will be of interest to everyone who attends. All are cordially invited.

General Fred D. Grant has been appointed commander of the Department of the Lakes, with headquarters in Chicago. He succeeds Gen. Bates.

Christmas morning the Episcopal church held services in the church at 10:30, which were enjoyed by a large audience. The music was excellent.

The new state bank of Lake Forest opened its doors for business last Monday morning. The business of the first week was far better than was anticipated.

Wednesday evening the members of St. Mary's church gave a very pretty Christmas entertainment at Goldberg's Opera House, which was largely attended.

It is reported that the Mormons are making a wholesale canvass of Lake county, though in a very quiet way. Several farmers have already adopted the faith.

Mr. Averill, our popular high school teacher, spent Christmas with his mother at Hinsdale, Ill., where she has been visiting friends the past six weeks.

Mr. Jay Weddell, son of a former Baptist minister of this place, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren over Sunday. He has been attending the Chicago University.

After January 1, the North Shore Electric Light Co. will furnish light during the day directly from their Evanston plant. In the evening light will be supplied from this station.

A new electrical device for announcing the approach of cars has been invented. It will prevent missing the car so often and the spaces around the machine are used for advertising.

The Libertyville branch of the Electric Road are experimenting with hot water for heating the cars. This is much cheaper than by electricity and it is thought will prove more efficient.

If you wish to give a New Years present that will be appreciated for the entire year, send your friend a years subscription of a popular magazine. Albert Larson is agent for all periodicals 26.

Dr. E. H. Pomeroy has gone to his old home at Lockport, N. Y., where he will spend the holidays. Mrs. Pomeroy has been there some time and will return with the doctor next Saturday.

Wednesday, Dec. 30, at 2 p. m. will be Children's day at the Highland Park Woman's club. Mrs. Bessie Brown Ricker will entertain the children and their friends. Those who have heard Miss Ricker know that a treat of unusual quality is in store for the little ones as well as those who are always young because they keep their hearts young.