

HIGHWOOD.

Miss Ada Fritsch has been on the sick list this week.

Frank Mowers' baby had an attack of la grippe this week.

Master Chester Murphy has been quite sick with tonsillitis.

Master Howard Mowers fell on the ice Monday, bruising his nose and face quite badly.

The mother of Mr. Geo. Rudd, clerk at F. M. Evans' grocery store, of Highland Park, died very suddenly of la grippe Tuesday evening.

The Christmas exercises of the Swedish M. E. church, occurred on Christmas eve. A very interesting program was rendered.

There was a Christmas tree for the children at Fort Sheridan Park Christmas afternoon at 2 o'clock, given by the citizens of this place. Everyone, young or old, were welcome.

The Highwood public school gave a very interesting program Wednesday to which the friends and parents of the school were invited and which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

The transport, Sherman, arrived in San Francisco last week, from Manila, by way of Nagasaki and Honolulu, bringing the men of the 30th Infantry, which was recruited at Fort Sheridan.

The Cavalry M Troop left Fort Sheridan last Sunday for the Philippines. The post is now almost deserted and the battery have enough to do, as all work devolves upon them until the arrival of the Infantry. Quite a number witnessed the departure of the cavalry on Sunday, though from appearances the infantry were the favored ones.

* Mrs. W. T. Hostetter was pleasantly suprised by a number of her friends last Monday evening. It was the occasion of her birthday. About twenty-eight played euche-re, Mrs. Detrich winning the first ladies prize and Mrs. M. J. Gibbs the second. Mr. Chas. Unbehaun won the first gents prize and Mr. Detrick the second. Mrs. Curley won the ladies consolation and Mr. McEwen the gents. Refreshments were served and all had a jolly time.

DECEASED.

Miss Ellen Foy, beloved daughter of Catherine and the late John Foy died at the home of Mrs. Geo. Bysong, on Central Ave.

The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Geo. Bysong, Mrs. Frank Recktenwald, William, Daniel and Catherine Foy.

The funeral occurred on Wednesday from the home of Mrs. George Bysong to St. Mary's church, at 9:30, where requiem high mass was celebrated, thence by carriage to the Sacred Heart cemetery.

M. E. ENTERTAINMENT.

The M. E. church of this place, held their Xmas services Christmas eve. A very fine program was rendered. Very beautiful tableaux formed the most pleasing part of the evening's entertainment. Those who had the preparation of this work certainly deserve great credit for their efficient work. Had some of those children been like "little Mary" we read about, they would have been minus their angels. The teacher had asked Mary to be an angel for the Christmas entertainment. The next morning, the following note, so the story runs, was handed to the teacher:

Dear Teacher:—Please excuse little Mary from being an angel. It is against her religion.

At the St. Louis fair next year the state of Mississippi will exhibit King Cotton seated on his throne as representing the state's greatest industry. The statue will be heroic in every respect and eclipse everything else molded in human form for size. Now it will be in order for Iowa to add to the royal family of farm products by sending King Corn. Minnesota should send her Ice King to cool things off during the summer, and Pennsylvania should get in with old King Coal, who could warm things up when they became too frigid.

A colored speaker denounced the so called "coon song" as vulgar and degrading. They're worse; they're a shestnut.
