

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1904.

NO. 6.

We have For Sale, Small Farm Mortgages upon which we guarantee 7 per cent. Interest and Principal. Call at Highland Park Bank for information.

Wm. H. Brown Co. & Brittain, 205 Tacoma Building, Chicago, Ills. 6-17

Keystone Cafe serves meals at all hours.

Dr. F. R. Williams is a new physician in town.

Mrs. Ed. Warren is quite sick with la grippe.

Coyne's Bakery goods at the Keystone Bakery.

Lyman Prior visited his relatives in Evanston last Sunday.

The Y. Y. C's will give a sleigh-ride this evening to their friends.

Try Coyne's bread if you have not already done so. Keystone Bakery.

Mr. Arthur P. Wycoff sang in church last Sunday at his old home at Winfield, Kansas.

The Bi-monthly Euchre club meets on next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jno. Snyder.

Coyne's "Daddy Dollar" and "Cream of Malt" bread at the Keystone.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Friday at the home of Mrs. E. Brown.

There will be preaching Sunday evening at 7:45, at the Baptist church. Everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher dined New Years day with Mr. and Mrs. M. Gormley of Glencoe.

The Baptist church hold Sunday evening service at 7:45. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boulter are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy this week.

Dowieite children of Chicago, are debarred from the public schools because they will not be vaccinated.

Sunday there was an alarm of fire about 10:30. It proved to be a chimney on fire at O'Niels, near Idlewild.

Home-made cakes and pies baked to order at Keystone Cafe and Bakery.

Mrs. A. O. Mason postponed her reception New Years day out of respect for the victims of the Iroquois fire.

Rev. H. D. Rogers, the new pastor of the Baptist church, welcomed his wife and family here Wednesday.

Mr. A. W. Fletcher and wife attended the funeral of our former townsman, Mr. Lyman Savage on Wednesday.

Miss Cornelia Barlow has been absent from school this week on account of the severe illness of the Misses LaBar.

Next Thursday the North American Union hold their regular meeting in the lodge room for installation of officers.

One of the public school teachers was delayed in returning to take charge of her room, owing to a snow blockade.

Miss Minnie Babcock, a trained nurse from the city, returned today after a short visit with her relatives, F. B. Williams and family.

For a good home cooked meal try the Keystone Cafe. 275 W. Central avenue.

Several of our townpeople had tickets for the Iroquois theatre the day of the fire but were delayed for various reasons from going.

Miss Esther Johnson of Evanston, visited Miss Catharine Sullivan New Year's day and in the evening Miss Catharine gave a candy pull.

Miss Wayte of Georgetown, Col., and Miss Gormley of Glencoe, dined Sunday with Mr. A. W. Fletcher and wife at the Highland Park Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prior entertained at a family reunion Wednesday, a number of their relatives from Evanston. Refreshments were served.

A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sullivan at their home on Park avenue last Tuesday night, where a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

The Highland Park Musical club postponed their regular meeting last Monday evening on account of the death of their beloved member, Mrs. Hoyt Fox of Winnetka.

Master Bissell Chapin, a former scholar in the Russell school here, and his mother, were burned to death in the fire which destroyed the Hotel Louvre in Chicago Monday night.

The C. & M. Electric R. R. Co., has secured twenty-five acres of land between Glencoe and Ravinia, where next season it will open a picnic park, with a theatre and athletic fields.

Miss Mildred Maloney of the High School Senior class at Battle Creek, Mich., returned home today after spending her vacation with the family of F. B. Williams, Central avenue.

Miss A. R. LaBar is suffering with pneumonia and her friends fear serious results. She has not yet been apprised of the death of her sister Helen, as her condition is too critical.

Mr. LaBar of Delavan, Wis., came here Monday evening to return with the remains of his aunt, Miss Helen LaBar, to their final resting place at her old home at Delavan.

Owing to the recent drop in flowers, which is phenomenal, our popular florist, Fritz Bahr, offers carnations to customers at wholesale prices in preference to shipping them to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Reesman entertained a few guests on New Years. Among those present were: Mrs. Louise and Emily Haungs, Mr. Amber Haungs, Jr., from Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder of Highland Park.

Thomas Howe received a fine lot of turkeys and ducks from a friend in South Dakota this week. Mr. and Mrs. Howe just returned from there a short while ago after purchasing some very fine farming land as an investment.

First Baptist church, Rev. G. D. Rogers, pastor. Public worship at 10:45 a. m and 7:30 p. m. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30; mid-week prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7:45; subject for the morning, "God's Providence;" subject for the evening, "A Radium Heart." Strangers are cordially welcome to all the services of this church. Pastors residence, No. 57 South 2nd street.