

New books in library

SHERIDAN ROAD

NEWS-LETTER

Hammond M R
May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1904.

NO. 7.

We have For Sale, Small Farm Mortgages upon which we guarantee 7 per cent. Interest and Principal. Call at Highland Park Bank for information.

Wm. H. Brown Co. & Brittain, 205 Tacoma Building, Chicago, Ills. 6-17

January 29, is Carnation or McKinley day

Coyne's Bakery goods at the Keystone Bakery.

Mr. Fred Schumacher is very sick with an attack of pleurisy

Home-made cakes and pies baked to order at Keystone Bakery.

The saw-mill at Half Day will run this coming season as usual.

Mr. Ed Lang took a flying trip to South Bend, Ind., on business.

Coyne's "Daddy Dollar" and "Cream of Malt" bread, Keystone.

Postmaster Fletcher made a short trip to South Bend, Ind., this week.

Mrs. J. M. Jones has been quite sick for two weeks with la grippe.

An English speaking Catholic church at Wilmette is now under consideration.

Miss Annie Pratt was out of school last Friday and all this week on account of illness.

Mr. Wm. Antis expects to go to Daytona, Fla., next week for the remainder of the winter.

Prof. Jessie Smith has had a lesson in substitute teachers this year. He has three now on hand.

The National Live Stock association held its convention in Portland, Oregon, Jan. 6-9, inclusive.

Mr. J. McGregor Adams left Thursday to spend the remainder of the winter in Daytona, Florida.

Miss Rosie Rudolph of Ravinia, visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Sheahen on Tuesday.

The North Shore Electric Co., are setting posts for electric light wires to be installed in the village of Winnetka.

Mr. Geo. W. Roberts has been quite sick with a complication of troubles and Monday was removed to a Chicago hospital.

Mr. L. J. Rice ran a sliver from hard wood into his finger this week and the doctor was obliged to perform an operation before any relief could be had.

The Saturday Musical will give one of its recitals at the home of Miss Blanche Newton at Ravenswood today, Miss Newton acting as hostess.

Mr. Harrison Van Schaick spent the holidays in Toronto, Canada. He is in Chicago for the remainder of the winter, coming to the Park on Sundays.

Miss A. R. LaBar died at her home on St. Johns avenue, last evening, at 10 p. m. Funeral services will occur at the Baptist church, Sunday, at 3 p. m.

Mrs. S. C. Maher of Park Ridge, is substituting in the first grade for Miss Barlow, who is detained at home on account of the serious illness of Miss LaBar.

For envelopes, Noteheads, Statements, Billheads, Letterheads, Posters, Dodgers and all kinds of printing, large and small, try the NEWS-LETTER office.

The Highland Park bank, in which some Winnetka capital is invested, has become a state bank with Mr. F. W. Cushing of the Moraine hotel as president.—Winnetka Local News.

Tonight there will be some fun at the high school gymnasium. The boys play the boys and the girls the girls at basket-ball. Do not fail to come. Admission for adults 25c, children 15.

Mrs. Frank Hibbard of Prairie avenue, Chicago, died last Saturday. She was a daughter-in-law of the late Mr. Wm. Hibbard and a relative of the Gregory's, who spend the summers in Highland Park.

The Highland Park Euchre club postponed their regular meeting on account of the play last night at Goldberg's opera house and the club went in a body, twenty-two in number, to hear Captain Robert Racket.

The Central school building at Waukegan was broken into last week and most of the tools used by the instructor and pupils in the manual training department were stolen, which seriously interfered with class work.

Bishop T. L. Bowman, D. D. of Chicago, will preach at the Ebenezer Evangelical church, Sunday, Jan. 24. Services in the morning at 10:30 and in the evening at 7:30. All are herewith cordially invited to these services.

The Y. Y. C. played the Corinthians at indoor base-ball at Lyons Hall, Evanston, last Saturday. Our boys played a good game but were obliged to "yield the palm" to the Evanston club. The score stood 13-7 in favor of Evanston.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denzel gave them a surprise party on Monday evening which proved a very enjoyable affair in every respect.

It pays to advertise. Immediate reply to ADDS in the SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER is the weekly experience of those who have made use of our columns in the past for advertising.

Mr. John Rudolph is acting as night policeman in the place of Mr. Lewis Avery, who shot himself in the ankle. He is not able to walk on his foot as yet. It doesn't pay to play with a 38 calibre revolver.

On Thursday evening the Highland Park Euchre club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green-slade. An enjoyable evening was spent, Mr. Geo. Bock and Mrs. Levin carrying off the first prize and Mr. Merklin and Mrs. Albright, second.

A little girl, Winifred Burrige at Lake Forest, was struck last week by a Chicago and Northwestern freight train on her way to school and her left leg was broken in two places, between the ankle and knee. She attempted to cross when the gates were down.

Miss Harriett G. Eddy, the former eight grade teacher, did not return to school this year as was expected. Prof. Jessie Smith has been obliged to secure a substitute from Evanston, but he hopes to have a good permanent teacher for that grade very soon.

Mr. Fritz Arnsward was seriously kicked by a horse about six weeks ago down in the brick yard. He died last Monday. The funeral was held on Wednesday at 12:30, at the German Lutheran church on Central avenue. Mr. Arnsward formerly lived in the Park.