Fire Marshal Bock was on hand last night with the fire hose close to the platform of the stage at Goldberg's opera house, ready at a moments notice in case of fire. Had these hundred and more precautions been in vogue sometime ago, how many human lives might have been saved.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. Wm. E. Brand, en route for England. He writes that he expects to visit Paris and Berlin before he returns to the states, in the interest of the art conservatory at Aurora, in which he was a teacher before he left. Mr. Brand reports a pleasant voyage.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denzel surprised them at their home on Second street Monday evening. Cards and games proved the feature of the evening. Refreshments were served and all voted the popular barber a delightful host, and as proficient in entertaining at home as when in the barber chair.

It is understood that the acquisition of land for the Fort Sheridan reservation is to be reduced from 110 acres to 84 acres, that being the available land within the limits of the appropriation. In 1902, J. S. Prall, of Highland Park, was commissioned to secure the land in question, it being estimated that the appropriation of $280,000 would be sufficient to secure the 110 acres,

Brooklyn's latest fad is a morning stroll of the ladies with their pet tabbies, bedecked with ribbons of bright hues. It might be well for this western city to "follow suit." There would not not be quite such a "mixup" in the post office and children would not be in quite as much danger as now from some of the beautiful (?) pets parading on our streets at times.

It is reported from New Orleans, La., that Dowie is trying to purchase an island, called Matagorda, which lies just outside of Arkansas, Pass, Texas., in the Gulf of Mexico. It is one of the most fertile spots in America. The island in its entirety, is for sale. It has an area of 30,000 acres. Elijah II, wants a remote spot free from obtrusion, to which he wishes to move Zion.

A corn school for the world will be a feature of the agricultural building at the World's Fair. This will be in the Illinois section and the display will do credit to the state. The commissioners were not inclined to grant so fine a space to Ill., but the "sucker state" won. Corn in every stage of growth and product will be exhibited. The state building is well on toward completion.

Last week the fire committee, including Hon. R. G. Evans; fire marshal, Andrew Bock; Messrs. James A. Shields, F. D. Everett and Ed Warren, inspected the post office and other public buildings to ascertain the chances one would have for their life if fire broke out. They found only one exit to the post office and that was the front door, and consequently they ordered Baird and Warner to place exits in the rear.

It is reported that a protest against a naval station at Lake Bluff is to be lodged by Canada with Great Britain. The ground, is that such a station is in violation of the treaty stipulations between Canada and the United States in 1817, which hinders warships being constructed on the lakes. In view of this, congress will be asked to abrogate the treaty, but this requires six months notice by either party.

Miss E. E. Wycoff and Miss Joy Miller attended the reception on Wednesday evening at Mr. Harry G. Selfridge's, Lake Shore drive, Chicago. Mr. Michel is at present delivering a course of lectures on "Art," at the Art Institute, Chicago. He is the director of art at the Louvre, Paris.

The Y. Y. C. did the gallant and took their young lady friends for a delightful sleigh ride last Saturday evening. Miss Williams, one of the high school teachers, chaperoned the party. They drove up around the Fort and about town, stopping at the drug store for hot chocolate. This club ought to be a nucleus for a young men's christian association in this place. There are certainly enough young men here to support such an organization.

The Lake County Agricultural Society adjourned their annual meeting on Dec. 9. Twenty-seven members met Wednesday of last week at the Libertyville town hall. There was no controversy at this meeting and it is believed that further opposition by those of the Libertyville Trotting association, whose recent attempt to gain control of the Fair association, to sell the grounds and hold future affairs on their new grounds proved a failure, will be of little avail whatever may develop.

Chris. Lohfink, who is residing on the county line between Lake and Kenosha counties, made a disturbance a few weeks ago when Kenosha county officers endeavored to serve papers on him. Mr. Lohfink will begin suit against those who took part in the affair, claiming he and his wife, who fought so desperately to resist the officers, had slipped over into the state of Illinois and therefore had a right to resist service. Mrs. Lohfink was seriously injured and was sick for some little time as the result. The suit will occur in the Lake county circuit court.

Rhode Island Fowl Makes a Bid for Fame by Laying Eggs That Are Black.

Another freak in the egg-laying line is just announced, and while the particular bird who is responsible for it does not allow her fame to rest on fecundity like Mrs. McNally's hen, the variety of the eggs that she lays is something new to these parts, says the Providence Journal. This particular bird is a duck, a black duck, and she lays black eggs, a freak of nature that has never been encountered before by the duck raisers of Rhode Island.

It is an ordinary sized duck's egg and is a deep drab in color. The color is mottled in some places, and the only light spot on the egg is at the small end, and there it is somewhat white. This egg is not a freak with the particular duck, for it is said that she has never laid any other kind of egg, and that she would be much surprised if she ever laid a white one.

The egg was brought in by John H. Montgomery, a relative of Mr. Young and he is authority for the statement that the meat in it is as good as in a white egg.

The apple is the most democratic of all fruits, declares the Atlanta Journal. The pomegranate is priestly; the grape is royal; the orange is luxurious; the

A NOBLE RED MAN.

Crazy Snake, Leader of Ketoowah Indians, Wants Uncle Sam to Enforce Old Treaty.

Chitto Harjo, known as Crazy Snake leader of the Ketoowah band of Creek Indians, has announced that he will go to Washington to have an interview with President Roosevelt, says the Kansas City Journal. Crazy Snake has the distinction of being the last Indian in the United States rebellious enough for Uncle Sam to order several companies of regulars out to keep him within bounds. This happened two years ago, when he declared war against the government, and since that time he has served a term in prison for rebellion. When the council of war was held near Tahlequah last week a tribe named a delegate to go with Crazy Snake to Washington. They are adherents of the old treaty of 1832, which provided that the Indians should hold their lands in common, according to the old tribal laws, as long as "water and grass grows." The old warrior and the delegates named to accompany him cannot speak English, and an interpreter will be necessary in order for them to make their wishes known to the president. They will ask him to enforce the treaty of 1832.

THE "SPEED MANIA."

Cyclists and Automobilists Said to Develop Characteristics Foreign to Them When in Normal State.

The conviction is gaining ground among scientific men that indulgence in extraordinary speeds of transition voluntarily controlled breeds in the human species a form of disease capable of development to the degree of delirium, says a London exchange. The disease is generally referred to as the speed craze or speed mania. By a rather strange coincidence a discussion on this subject took place at the Societe de Hypnologie et de Psychologie, in Paris, only a few days before the tragic death of Zborowski. One of the speakers, a Dr. Hachet-Souplet, maintained that persons in position to increase their speed of transition at will are simply carried away by the consciousness thereof. They have no longer control of themselves; they are intoxicated. They then develop characteristics which are foreign to them when in the normal state—boastfulness, combativeness, crabbedness, hatred, mischievousness and violence. These characteristics vary in form and degree, but may attain a maximum in the cyclist and automobilist.

Bullet's Swift Flight.

A shell from a 12-inch gun makes its flight of nine miles in 42 seconds.

No one could have supposed that a company of girls would go out on strike because there were too many mirrors in their workroom. It has happened, however, in New York. The trouble was that the foreman had arranged the mirrors round his desk so that, without seeming to notice, he could see whether or not the girls were working steadily. When the device was called to the attention of the proprietor, he sided with the girls, and the strike ended.
