

Page 4

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M. B.
May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JANUARY 23, 1904.

NO. 8.

We have For Sale, Small Farm Mortgages upon which we guarantee 7 per cent. Interest and Principal. Call at Highland Park Bank for information.

Wm. H. Brown Co. & Brittain, 205 Tacoma Building, Chicago, Ills. 6-17

The Modern Woodmen held their regular meeting last evening.

Mr. H. C. Basye is spending the winter in Hammond, Louisiana.

Mrs. A. W. Fletcher has had a bad attack of grippe during the past week.

Mr. A. Rooney, of Waukegan, greeted friends in the Park one day this week.

Gen. John C. Black, of Chicago, has been appointed civil service commissioner.

It is reported the North Shore Gas Company may extend its mains to Libertyville.

The Bi-monthly Euchre Club meets Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. James Bowden.

Miss Annie Rudolph visited her sister, Mrs. T. P. Evans; at Winnetka on Wednesday.

Last Saturday was court day here and Judge Hibbard had a dozen cases for trial.

Mrs. J. W. Mauck, of Hinsdale, Mich., visited friends in town for a few days last week.

Miss Nauda Erickson is quite sick at her home in Wisconsin, where she went to pass the winter.

Saturday evening the Highland Park Club gave a euchre and whist party at the club rooms.

The entertainment committee of the Y. Y. C. met with Mr. Charles Warren Wednesday Evening.

Prof. Jessie Smith made a hurried trip to Mason City, Iowa, on first of this week, returning Tuesday.

Miss Cornelia Barton returned to take charge of her school on Monday morning much to the joy of the little ones.

Mr. Luman T. Hoy, of Woodstock, has been appointed government appraiser of merchandise in the Chicago district.

The Gazette issued a very handsome illustrated number last Saturday in honor of the Fireman's convention.

The officers of the new Highland Park State Bank are Fred W. Cushing, President and David A. Holmes, Cashier.

The Chicago orchestra resumed its concerts at the Auditorium yesterday afternoon and will give a concert this evening.

Pastor Geo. D. Rogers attended the funeral of one of his former parishioners last week Wednesday at Pontiac, Ill.

Mr. J. LaBar, nephew of the late Misses LaBar, came from Delevan, Wis., for the body of the deceased Miss A. R. LaBar on Sunday.

Miss Joy Miller was quite seriously injured last Friday morning by being overtaxed in a game of basket-ball. She is still confined to her home.

The new game law has put in the state treasury $60,000 in fees and fines. This means there are nearly 50,000 licensed hunters in Illinois.

Mr. James R. Barlow, of Fargo, N. D., arrived here Monday morning just in time to accompany the body of Miss A. R. LaBar to Delavan, Wis.

It is reported in all probability we will have two annual fairs, the Lake County Agricultural Society and the Libertyville Trotting Association.

Tuesday, January 19th, Dr. Effie L. Lobdell led the discussion at the Woman's Club on the subject "Home Occupations of Our Immigrant Women."

M. O. Williamson, of Galesburg, Knox County has announced himself a candidate for nomination for Secretary of State on the regular republican ticket.

Willie Eckhardt has been confined to the house for a few days. It is reported that his illness is due to the basket ball game last Saturday night.

The Highland Park girls worsted the Waukegan girls at basket-ball last Saturday night at the high school gymnasium, score being 6 to 3 in favor of "our girls."

Mr. A. G. McPherson received some Vermont maple syrup and sugar from a friend in Woodstock that state. He says it is not like that sold in Chicago for Vermont sugar.

It is reported Alderman Shields is fathering the street numbering scheme. This is the best plan yet presented. The city would be divided into wards and 100 numbers to the block. Then the streets running east and west will be avenues north and south roads. The short streets, like Circle Ave. and the Pocket will be places.

One of our townsmen reported his dog as having "bit him in the snow shovel" last week. It took six revolver shots and three well directed rifle shots before the dog was dispatched.

Bishop T. L. Bowman, D. D., of Chicago, will preach at the Ebenezer Evangelical church, Sunday, Jan. 24. Services in the evening at 7:30. All are herewith cordially invited to the service.

Mrs. E. H. Pomeroy, who has been visiting in the east, arrived in the Park Thursday and is stopping at the Highland Park Hotel where the doctor has engaged apartments for the winter.

Northwestern trains will not make up time lost but all trains that become late on any portion of their trip must arrive at destination late. They must run in the future on schedule time.

Thirteen was proven unlucky by a party of young people to that number attending a dance at Winnetka. Their sleigh and horses were found missing and they were obliged to walk to Evanston.

A number of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy Thursday evening. Cards and games were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served and all report a royal good time.

Monday evening the Odd Fellows from Waukegan along the line to Lake View were entertained at Evanston by lodge No. 673. The conferring of initiatory degrees was the feature of the evening.

Judge Elbridge Haney has accepted the appointment offered him by Gov. Yates as successor to the late Judge Hutchinson of the Superior Court and will return to the bench after an absence of 6 months.