Tramps attempted an entrance into the home of Prof. R. L. Sandwick last Friday evening, but were frightened away, they next tried the home of Mr. Williams, one of the high school teachers, but failed in their efforts. It is reported others were annoyed by these marauders, but nothing is reported missing. An ordinance against the tramp nuisance, such as is in force at Winnetka, should be passed by our city council. The housewives of Winnetka are not often insulted and frightened by tramps demanding a "hand out" or "a dime to buy a drink" as is the case here almost every day. It don't take the hobos long to discover that it costs a years hard work to "work" the "burg" south of us.
