SATURDAY, JAN. 30, 1904

Chas. R. Kingsbury, for six weeks sought after by the Warner Sugar Refinery for forgery, was captured at Memphis, Tenn. There was a reward of $200 offered for him.

We certainly have had a cold snap but reports from New York tell of the thermometer being down to 52 below zero. Along the Hudson the ice harvesters left their work and would not return the cold was so intense.

While here this week Mr. A. N. Tiffany, of Antioch, was favorably impressed with the outlook for his nomination for State Senator. However Mr. F. W. Cushing is a resident of Highland Park, a thoroughly reliable, competent business man, who has placed himself before the public at the wish of his party. He is well known as a courteous and reliable man in every respect. Because of his known integrity he can expect hearty support from those who have been associated with him.

In the hands of Mr. Geo. Edmund Foss will be placed an invitation to President Roosevelt to attend the Bachelors' Club at Waukegan on the evening that Mayor Pearce, gowned as nearly as possible to represent "Dr." Dowie whose resemblance in form is quite similar, will present the $50 gold medal offered by him to the father of the first pair of twins born to any member of the Club. The reading of the President's reply will be a feature of the evening as in the invitation issued to him they will assure Teddy of their support for president. Cashier Theodore Durst, of the Security Bank, is responsible for this demonstration and it will be a red letter day for the Club. Active members will wear black cap and gown.

HUMANE SOCIETY IN EARNEST?

The following news item is clipped from the Waukegan Gazette:

"Winthrop Harbor's Mayor, who is said to have attended a chicken fight, has now the advantage of a horrible example, for Mayor Pearce, of Waukegan, faces trouble for having sanctioned by his presence the badger fight held for the entertainment of the firemen at the the time of the recent convention.

"This morning the Mayor was waited on by a lady who wanted particulars as to the fight. She said the humane society had determined to take the matter up. Personally she did not believe the Mayor attended and wanted to know if he really did. She believed in prize fights because the loss of a man or two didn't cut much figure, but she was averse to fighting animals. What was this badger, anyway? Mayor Pearce admitted attending the fight, but did not think the sport cruel. The badger was obtained from "out west." It was about the size of a dog, and the exhibition of the prowess of both dog and badger was unattended by cruelty. To prove it he begged the lady to bear to the humane society with his compliments an invitation to attend the next badger fight held in this city that judgement might be pronounced from first hand experience. The humane officers would even be invited to referee the scrap.

The Venezuelan Roads.

The roads of Venezuela are not suitable for American styles of vehicles, and draft animals are rather small for any ordinary vehicles for freight. The lighter kind of pleasure vehicles could be used if the roads were not so bad.

How few of us know we are right until after we have asked somebody.
