

Additional Locals.

Mrs. E. H. Pomeroy has been very ill the past few days.

Coyne's bread fresh every day at Keystone Cafe and Bakery.

Some very handsome Azalios are in bloom at Bahr's greenhouse, the colors being as handsome as orchids.

Mr. Fritz Bahr had a serious attack of la grippe recently, but we are glad to report him entirely recovered and "on deck."

Last Thursday a passenger coach on a suburban train of the N. W. road west of here burned, attracting a large crowd of spectators.

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Avery Rudolph entertained at dinner his father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. George Rudolph and family, Mrs. Florent and baby and Master Harry Rudolph.

Ladies clean your kid gloves with the Dry Cleaner. It is not a liquid, leaves no odor, and can be used while the gloves are on the hands. For sale only by George B. Cummings, Druggist. 9-12

The choir boys of the Episcopal church gave a supper on Thursday evening in Masonic Hall to a number of their friends. Toasts were given, and all present report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rudolph gave a dinner to their parents brothers and sisters, with their children, on Monday, in honor of their sister, of Chicago, who is spending a week here with her parents.

After July 1 the private mailing cards now in use by mail order houses and department stores will be excluded from the mails if they bear on the address side the words, "United States of America."

Mrs. S. Levin gave an afternoon card party to the ladies on Thursday, introducing her sisters, Mrs. Eddy and Miss Bender. A most enjoyable afternoon is reported. Refreshments completed entertainment of the hour.

There was a minstrel show at the Highland Park Club House, Saturday evening. They honored the postoffice in ryme, calling attention to the fact that ladies were unable to work the combinations "till they had called out a 'King.'"

The Young Men's Social Union will have charge of the meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:30. A very interesting program will be rendered. The address of the evening will be "A Young Man Gone Wrong." Good music, seats free.

The C. C. C's will meet next Wednesday at the Baptist church prayer meeting which will be led in the usual order of the class meetings. The change of evening is on account of the Baptist Social Union, which meets on Tuesday evening in Chicago.

Mr. H. M. Coburn, a Chicago attorney, who lived at Lake Forest, died at Hot Springs, Ark.; last week. Mr. Coburn was identified with Democratic politics and was instrumental in forming the first Democratic club at Lake Forest, and was a prominent Lake county Democrat.

The Highland Park Euchre Club hold their next meeting at Mr. G W. Maerklin's on Thursday evening. The lucky ones at Mr. H. M. Prior's Wednesday evening were Mrs. Duffy, first ladies' prize; Mr. Prior, first gents'; Mrs. S. Levin, ladies' booby prize and Mr. W. Albrecht, the gents'.

During the cold snap it is difficult for the squirrels to obtain food, as such a hard crust has formed on the snow by the recent thaw and freeze. If the squirrels visit your place keep food out for them. They like corn, hickory nuts or chestnuts, but will soon learn to eat bread and other foods.

In the February number of the Ladies Home Journal is a musical production by Mr. Frank Lester Price. The author of the words is anonymous. This is one of the musical numbers recently purchased from Mr. Price by the Curtis Publishing Co. The title is "If You Were Here,"

The Modern Woodmen have revised their by-laws by which clerks and bankers of local camps do not have to give a personal bond. The head office handles this, a blanket bond being issued by a Surety Company, which covers all the lodges. This is a move in the right direction, as it makes it much cheaper for each lodge.

Messrs. D. C. Purdy, Byron Stevens, of the Highland Park Hotel, Robt. Raffan, Herman Denzel, and Mr. Wilmot, of Waukegan, went to Springfield Tuesday evening to attend the Love Feast given by the Republican party of the state. We can judge by the above names who will be the leaders of the future Republican party here.
