

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M R
May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.
HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1904.
NO. 14.

OUT THEY GO—To invest in good farm land in North Dakota for $8½ per acre, $200 down, balance $12½ per month or yearly payments. 160 acre homestead adjoining. Productive soil, excellent water, best grasses, healthiest climate and free coal. Call or write for maps and plats. Look where you will, then come and see us and we will sell you a farm.

Wm. H. Brown Co. & Brittain, 205 Tacoma Building, Chicago, Ills. 6-17

Mrs. Frank Anderson has returned from her southern trip.

Mr. C. L. Finney has been on the sick list with la grippe.

Mr. W. H. Russell has been on the sick list the past week.

Master Earle Tucker is quite sick with an attack of bronchitis.

Wanted, young lady apprentice for Millinery at Ladies Bazaar. *

The Highland Park Club will play bridge whist Friday evening.

Miss Kathryn Marsh gives a luncheon to a few of her lady friends today.

Miss Mildred Mihills entertained her young lady friends at luncheon today.

Dr. Ingalls entertained a number of friends at a euchre party Monday evening.

The Highland Park Musical met at Mrs. Jones' studio Monday evening.

Mr. M. A. Ives returned to the Park this week. His family will return later.

The family of Mr. L. J. Rice have all been down with la grippe the past week.

Miss Eva E. Wycoff returned today from a short visit with friends in Chicago.

The City Council held their regular meeting at the city hall Wednesday evening.

A temporary fire escape was put up this week in the rear of the Masonic Hall.

If you deposit in Erskine's Bank $5.00 per month you will in one year have $61.00. 11tf

The Republican County Convention will meet at Libertyville on March 26.

Mr. George Rounseville is the guest of his brother, Mr. J. E. Rounseville.

Edward M. Laing will make a specialty of laying cement sidewalks this summer.

Mrs. Wm. Tillman has been confined to the house for some time on account of illness.

The high school girls defeated the Hyde Park girls at basketball yesterday. Score 13 to 5.

Miss May Hoffert returned from New York Monday, where she has been since September.

Miss Alice Evans has been in the post office the past week taking the place of Miss Fessler.

Mr. Arthur P. Wycoff, who has been in Chicago for a few weeks, has returned to the Park.

March 2 there was an examination of applicants for positions as postal clerks held at Waukegan.

Deerfield High School beat the Waukegan team at basketball last evening. Score 28 to 23.

Fritz Bahr's Easter lilies bid fair to far exceed anything he has attempted in previous years.

Assistant Postmaster King has had an attack of la-grippe the past week, but remained on duty.

Mr. Wm. Flynn, who was recently married, will occupy Mr. Roebing's flat on West Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell have moved into the Mead cottage, corner of Lincoln and Linden avenues.

Messrs. Geo. Gregnon, Fred Kenney, and J. James, of Rogers Park, visited Mr. C. L. Finney on Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. L. Campbell has had an attack of la grippe. Her mother is also suffering from the same disease.

Miss White and Mrs. Benedict gave their children a vacation Wednesday. It was visiting day with them.

Miss Lottie Brand is organist for the young people at the church recently built by the Americans at Berlin.

Miss Florence Williams, who was recently operated on at Augustina hospital, died from the effects of the same.

The Keystone Cafe, on Central avenue, has taken the sole agency for the Chicago American and Examiner.

"Lem" Rudolph returned from Cleveland, Ohio, this week. He has been at work there the past few months.

Mr. Hall, the author of Werner's arithmetic, was a guest of Prof. Jesse Smith on his visit to the school Tuesday.

The Illinois Sunday School Association will hold an institute at the Baptist church Friday, March 11. Field Worker Henry Moser, and Mrs. M. S. Lameroux, State Primary Teacher, will be present.

Mrs. A. O. Mason entertained Mr. Mernon D'Arualle and Mrs. Edwin N. Lapham during their stay in the Park Friday.

Mr. Fred Perryman returned Monday from his trip to England and says he had a very stormy passage on his return trip.

Mr. W. A. Merigold, Jr. has rented one of the houses recently built by Mr. J. E. Rounseville, on Linden avenue.

Mrs. N. J. Ross, of the Avenue House, Evanston, accompanied by her son and daughter, visited Miss Joy Miller Sunday.

Miss "Dodo" Fessler has been missed from the postoffice part of the week. Truly the grippe is no respecter of persons.

Mr. E. M. Laing was awarded several contracts for the construction of sewers and street paving in the Park this week.

The capitol building, at Madison, Wis., was destroyed by fire Saturday. An effort will be made to move the capitol to Milwaukee.

A new paper called Talk has recently been established at Evanston and contains news of interest to residents north of Chicago.

Mr. H. W. Wales, Jr. has rented one of Mr. J. E. Rounseville's houses, on Linden avenue, which is about ready for occupancy.

Congressman Foss has introduced a bill appropriating $100,000 for the purchase of a site and the erection of a federal building at Waukegan.

A banquet will be tendered the Prohibition party, at the Northwestern Military Academy, March 19th. An elaborate programme has been prepared.

A number of the young people gave a sleighing party Monday evening. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all, though it rained part of the time.

Cement Sidewalks Laid.      Estimates Furnished      Phone 901
E. M. LAING, General Contractor.