

Hammond M. B. May 1, 04

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1904.

NO. 17.

Mrs. Fred A. Tucker is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Geo. Tucker is sick with an attack of LaGrippe.

Mrs. W. D. Alford visited friends in Waukegan on Thursday.

Mr. F. Frederick has had a severe attack of quinsy sore throat.

Mrs. Fred Frasier has had an attack of Gripp during the week.

Mr. Ambrose Haungs, Jr., visited his sister, Mrs. J. S. Reesman, on Sunday.

Mr. Gordon A. Ramsey, Mayor of Glencoe, greeted friends in this city Thursday.

The roof of the golf building was torn from the structure and other damage done.

The Saturday Musical will meet today at the home of Mrs. B. A. Cook, Chicago.

Miss Mary L. Morris, of Second street, visited friends in Milwaukee for a few days.

The Misses Shields and Clark gave a German at the Highland Park Club last evening.

Mrs. H. M. Davis, of Milwaukee, visited her niece, Mrs. Chas. McClure, during the week.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church met for work Wednesday at the church.

The Highland Park Euchre Club met Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. G. Maerklin.

Mrs. A. W. Fletcher visited her brother, Mr. Stephen Yates, at LaGrange, Ill., this week.

Palm Sunday will be fittingly observed in the various churches according to the usual custom.

Mr. Charles Cape and brother have engaged rooms at the Highland Park Hotel for the summer.

Mrs. Horace Collum and family, of Ravinia, left on Monday to make their home in Chicago.

Mr. Palmer A. Montgomery will leave for St. Louis on Monday and will visit the exposition grounds.

Mr. Earl Purdy has been suffering for a couple of weeks with an attack of grippe and tonsilitis.

Mrs. J. S. Reesman left for Chicago Thursday for a few days visit with her father Mr. A. Haung's.

Mrs. Byron Stevens is rapidly recovering from the recent operation and will soon be able to be around again.

Mr. W. A. Averill was absent from school a few days on account of illness, after his visit to Chicago school.

It would be a great advantage to voters if the primaries would remain open half a day instead a couple of hours.

Savings deposits made in Erskine's Bank on or before the tenth of each month draw interest from the first of the month. 15tf

The choir of the Episcopal church will render Steiner's Crucifixion Friday evening next. Everybody cordially invited.

The Ebenezer M. E. church will hold quarterly conference tomorrow. The Rev. Wm. Smooce will conduct the meeting.

The city cleaned up the streets in the business part of town which makes the Park look like a clean city; keep it so.

Mrs. W. M. Goodridge has rented Ex-Mayor Cobb's house and the Dr. Soule place, and will fill them with summer boarders.

Miss Dr. Wright, of Lake Forest, will read a paper at the Highland Park Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. J. S. Reesman will leave soon for a two months' visit with her father-in-law in the Ozark Mountains, Missouri.

Mr. G. J. Finkbeiner left on Tuesday to attend the Conference of the United Evangelical Church held at Chedwick, Ill., this week.

Mr. Chas. S. Deneen spoke at Library hall Wednesday evening, delivering a very able and scholarly address, doing credit to himself.

The Young Men's Social Union entertained a number of their friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Warren Thursday evening.

Last Sunday p. m. at the German Lutheran church seven young ladies were examined preparatory to their being confirmed on Palm Sunday.

The D. T. H. S. boys won the basketball game at Harvard, Ill., by a score of 26 to 16. They were royally entertained by the Harvard boys.

The German Lutheran ladies were very busy Thursday renovating their church to have it in a perfectly clean condition for Palm and Easter Sundays.

The C. C. C.'s held their final study class for the season Tuesday evening, but will entertain their friends at an open meeting before closing.

Mrs. J. S. Reesman's sister, Miss Emily Rose Haungs, who is well known to many Highland Park people, is very sick with nervous prostration.

It is seldom that a rain storm like that of Thursday night visits Highland Park. It was certainly a cloudburst of the worst kind. Waves of water poured over Central avenue and spray swept in every direction, breaking glass by its fierce contact, and doing considerable damage through the town.

The Episcopal church will render Reed's communion service on Easter morning. The church will be tastefully decorated with lillies. All are invited.

Messrs. E. G. Evans and Byron Stevens have taken the agency for the Bane Wagon Co. This makes three wagon companies for which they are agents.

Special services will be held at the Ebenezer M. E. church Easter Sunday in the evening instead of in the morning as is the usual custom. Everyone is invited.

Mr. Frank O. Lowden addressed the voters of Deerfield township, at Goldbergs Opera house, Thursday evening, delighting his hearers with his flow of eloquence.

Mr. Alfred Moses has treated his delivery wagons to a coat of paint which much improves their appearance. His business is booming, as a result of judicious advertising.

The eight room house on Sheridan Road formerly occupied by C. E. Stuart, is being put in order to rent. Henry K. Coale is agent. Key at Mr. Schaefer's. 17-tf

A special meeting of Park Lodge No. 366, Mystic Workers of the World has been called to meet Tuesday evening at the residence of A. E. Dorsey, Ravine and St. Johns aves. All members are requested to be present.

I have been fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Lane, formerly of D. B. Fisk's, and later of Gage Bros., to attend to the Millinery Department for this season. She thoroughly understands her business and I can assure perfect satisfaction to all who kindly patronize our store for their summer hats. 16-17. THE LADIES' BAZAAR.

Cement Sidewalks Laid

Estimates Furnished

Phone 901