The Township Sunday School Convention will convene in Highland Park tomorrow. A full program is printed in this issue.

Do not fail to attend the apron, cake and candy sale, on Central avenue, held by the Young Ladies this afternoon and evening.

The Mystic Workers of the World Park Lodge 366 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jane Ginty at Ravinia Tuesday evening. A most delightful evening is reported.

The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baptist church will hold a cake, candy and apron sale this afternoon and evening in the building third door south of the postoffice.

The new $1,000 bus for the accommodation of the guests at The Moraine is "a thing of beauty" and much larger than the former vehicle, and, with the new uniform of the attendants, makes a very stylish appearance.

Mrs. H. J. Miller and family wish to thank the many friends and neighbors, whose ready response and generous sympathy helped to lighten the burden of sorrow, caused by the passing away from earth life of Mr. Millen May 21st.

D. P. Sheahan, who bought out Raffin & Sons' ice business last fall, has put in the largest supply of ice on the North Shore. Mr. Sheahan will do business under the name of North Shore Ice Co. and as he is not in the combine some lively rate-cutting is looked for during the coming summer. Large users of ice will do well to make arrangements with the company now for their summer supply. Phone 104. 26

The Moraine.

Mr. Edson Keith, of Chicago, is a guest at The Moraine for the summer.

Mr. E. A. Russell and family, of Chicago, are at The Moraine for the summer.

The Automobile Club of Chicago will make a run out to The Moraine June 4th.

The grounds surrounding The Moraine have been much improved by changes in the shrubbery.

The real opening of The Moraine occurs this evening with a grand dinner, which will be served at 6:30.

Mr. Walter C. Larned, of Blare Lodge, Lake Forest, came to The Moraine Thursday for the summer.

The Mayflower Club, to the number of sixty, dined at The Moraine. Bishop Cheney was among the number.

The porches at The Moraine were enclosed with screens this week to protect the guests from flies and mosquitoes.

Mr. W. B. Seipp and family, of Chicago, arrived at The Moraine Wednesday and have taken rooms for the summer.

The Ashland Club of Chicago will give a dance and dinner at The Moraine June 11. A special train will bring out 400 members from Chicago.

A very neat "auto room" for ladies has been furnished at The Moraine on the first floor. The Mount Vernon, Norfolk and Amsterdam rooms are popular with the guests.

The Highland Park "Browns" and Chicago "Elites" play the first of a series of games at the new baseball park, Libertyville, Sunday. The game will be called at three o'clock.

On Monday, Decoration Day, dinner will be served at The Moraine at 1 p. m. Benson's orchestra, of Chicago, will give a concert on the lawn afternoon and evening which will be a treat.

One of the prettiest sights in town is the bank of pansies and ordinary lilacs along the drive leading to The Moraine. The thorn hedge and quince help to give variety to the scene.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

Hobart J. Millen, during fifty years a resident of Cook and Lake counties, died last Saturday at his residence in this city, aged 72 years. During sixteen years Mr. Millen had been blind from injuries received in the civil war where he served in the One Hundred and Fifty-third Illinois volunteers. Mr. Millen was born in New York and came west when 6 years old. For many years he was in business in Deerfield, but retired from active affairs twelve years ago.
