QUEEN ESTHER.

Prof. Byron W. Rice, the conductor, is very much pleased with the chorus who are to perform this popular cantata. The date for the presentation of "Queen Esther" is June 9th and 10th. There will be nearly one hundred taking part who will appear in Jewish and Persian costume. Prof. Rice has conducted the cantata in Chicago eighteen times with some of the strongest churches and always with first-class success.

The triumphal march by thirty young misses will be a most enchanting scene. Dr. W. A. Carwaine, of Ada Street M. E. Church, says the triumphal march was the prettiest scene ever given in his church. At Leavitt Street Congregational church, people were turned away both evenings, there being not even standing room left.

Highland Park people will certainly have an opportunity to attend a beautiful entertainment.
