

EVENTS OF THE WEEK AT THE FORT.

Read THE NEWS—$1.00 per year. Company B will have all new rifles in the near future.

Gen. Grant will view the parade at Chicago on Memorial Day.

Sergt. Robertson is looking forward to his discharge on the 1st of next month.

Private Hudson of Company B is out of the hospital after a spell of chills and fever.

First Sergt. Hoke of Company B made a flying business trip to Chicago during the week.

Private Moore of Company B has opened a tailor shop for the benefit of the men of that company.

Mrs. Col. R. T. Yeatman and son Richard, Jr., are expected from Stanford, Conn., next week.

The 150 recruits who arrived recently from Columbus, Ohio, are beginning to look like soldiers.

A new uniform, which is a great improvement over the old, will be issued at the post next week.

Sergt. Wood and Private Somsek, of Company B, are considered two of the best bag punchers at the post.

The officers at the post tendered a ball to the Highland Park Club at the officers' quarters last evening.

Considerable improvement is being made in the sewerage at the post. The work is being done by prisoners.

A number of companies at the post will go to Chicago on Decoration Day and be guests at the celebration in that city.

Paul Burgess, a three-months' recruit, deserted from Company B last Sunday. He enlisted from Bangor, Maine.

Soldiers who desire to subscribe to THE FORT SHERIDAN NEWS can leave their names with Private Bowers, Company B, 27th Infantry.

Sergt. McLaughlin has again joined Company B, 27th Infantry. The sergeant was discharged in February and has just re-enlisted.

Miss Marie Wessley, of Chicago, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, of Stockholm, Sweden, are guests at The Moraine Hotel, Highland Park.

A military band of fourteen pieces from Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived during the week at the park, which is very satisfactory to the management.

Target practice is the main feature at the post at this time. Some excellent marksmen are qualifying—16 out of 20 is a common occurrence.

Services at the M. E. Chapel at Highwood are being very well attended, showing that the efforts of the bright and able pastor are appreciated.

An extra large attendance was the result of the annual May concert at the Swedish Lutheran Church, held on Thursday evening. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Private James Dorsitt, barber of Company B, 27th Infantry, is about to embark in a matrimonial venture. The boys of Company B wish him and his bride well.

The change in the weather is certainly agreeable to every one. Many couples can be seen marching to the tune of the bullfrog through beautiful blossoms over to Highwood.

Lieut. Hawkins holds an excellent record at target practice, and it is no trouble for the lieutenant to see three bull's-eyes out of every five shots, and hardly ever less than a four.

Companies B and C of the 27th Infantry, will leave for Fort Thomas, Ky., about the 18th of next month, where they will go to release a company of the 3d Infantry, which is to go to Alaska.

If you want to have news and you know of anything that will benefit our readers or your company, see Private Bowers of Company B. All news must be in by Thursday, to appear in the Saturday issue.

A special men's service will be held in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening, May 29, at 7:45. An excellent choir has been procured for this occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to the soldiers and the public in general.

It seems that some of the boys would rather climb over than go through the straight and narrow way. As a result two boys were arrested by the Highwood police on Tuesday evening for jumping the fence into the park.

Chaplain Rice, of the 27th Infantry is holding a series of meetings every Thursday evening in the mess hall at the post. Stereoptican views are the features. Considerable interest is shown by the boys, and if possible to preserve order it will have been more satisfactory to all concerned.

Iowa is said to be about to pass a law making it a misdemeanor for an able-bodied man to refuse a job of work. What a lot of cripples that law will make.

In the words of Admiral Alexieff "Veni, Vidi, Ratsky!"

KEROSENE WAS A SURPRISE

To the man who lived by candle light, and the man who was used to the odor of coal oil smoke, sidestepped a little when they wanted to pipe his house for gas. New ideas in lighting have had to fight their way. This is what ELECTRICITY is doing now. Electric Light is the only illuminant today which is entirely free from odor or smoke. You cannot afford to be without it. A postal card will bring our representative to your door.

We will do your Wiring Reasonable.
