

Additional Locals

The residents of the north shore will give an entertainment for the benefit of Gads Hill little people, July 8-9-10. Elaborate preparations are in progress to make this feature of the summer recreation for the children a decided success.

This afternoon and evening Miss Alice Davidson will entertain the Chicago Northfield Herman class. Madam Tsilka, who was with Miss Stoue when taken by the brigands, a returned missionary from Palestine, and Mrs. A. P. Fell will deliver addresses.

The ladies of the Ebenezer Church met Thursday afternoon for the organization of a Ladies' Aid Society. The election of officers resulted: Mrs. Rev. H. F. Ebert, president; Mrs. J. Keller, vice president; Mrs. George Brand, secretary; Mrs. Moltke, treasurer. The society will have its meeting on every Thursday of the month.

Miss Hallie Gavitt, who for the past year has been attending the Hart Conway School of Acting, finishes her year's work on Friday, June 24th, when she plays Georgiana Tidmore in an English play, "Dandy Dick," by Penpro. Miss Gavitt has received great praise from some of the leading actors and managers, who have seen her work in the school performances during the year. She has been offered the lead with "Quincy Adams Sawyer" for next season, but has refused, and is having a sketch written for her which will be put on in September. Miss Gavitt has taken for her stage name Hart, her tutor's given name. Her many friends wish Hallie Hart success.

The Hereros.

The Hereros, now in rebellion against Germany, have a pretty fair opinion on themselves and of their chief. One of their songs begins: "What is the king of England, what is the king of Germany compared with thee, O Mahereo first among all princes? Have they so many cattle as thou? No! Who is so mighty as art thou?" The Hereros despise Europeans. The name for a European is "otyrumbo"—"white thing."

Ancients Had Pins.

Pins have been found among the Egyptian mummies and in the prehistoric caves of Switzerland.
