

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M R May 1, 04

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XVI.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1904.

NO. 6.

Rev. G. D. Rogers has returned from St. Louis.

Mrs. F. D. Everett is very ill and confined to the house.

Mr. Alexander Robertson has a very intelligent tame crow.

Mrs. H. W. Harlow is expected home from the hospital next week.

This evening will be the closing exercises of the Gads Hill County Fair.

Mrs. Conger has been very ill in a Chicago hospital during the past week.

P. J. Fitzgerald is building a new house on First street south of Laurel avenue.

Elmer Evans is suffering from a burn on his hand received the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Ed Cole was removed to a Chicago hospital for an operation on Thursday.

George Brodard had his hands severely burned by a giant cracker on the Fourth.

Wm. J. C. DeLand, of Chicago, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robertson for a few days.

The Misses Adelle and Frances Everett returned Thursday from their five months' trip abroad.

Miss Esther Holmes, a teacher in the Ravinia School, will spend her vacation in Toronto, Can.

Miss Belle Clark returned this week from a year traveling abroad and is with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith, of Decatur, Ill., visited their mother, Mrs. B. A. Smith, on Central avenue, for a week.

Miss Emma Evans gave a birthday party to her many friends at her home on Central avenue Tuesday afternoon.

Why is the Gads Hill County Fair advertised as held in Glencoe, when it is in the corporate limits of Highland Park?

The Christian Scientists hold communion service Sunday morning. There will be several additions to membership.

The Misses Minnie and Laura Niebuhr, of Wheeling, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robertson for a few weeks.

The relatives of the late Miss Annie Rudolph feel greatly indebted to the many friends who so kindly assisted them during their recent sorrow.

WANTED—Every lady to bring in checks and get premiums for them, as the present checks will all be redeemed by August 1. Mrs. Bobl, Ladies Bazaar. 6

Miss Harriet Leaming will be at the Ravinia school house each Tuesday from 2 to 3 p. m. during the vacation to act as librarian in the absence of Miss Holmes.

Fred Kopp, who was injured some time ago while loading water pipe at Highland Park, is so far improved that he expects to return to his home from the hospital next week.

Mrs. S. B. Storm of New York city, Mrs. H. W. Davis of Chicago, and Mrs. Chas. Lynn of Waukegan, were the guests of Mrs. Olof Lind bloom Thursday of this week.

The First United Evangelical Sunday School will "picnic" next Thursday on Lake front, foot of Central Avenue. Refreshments can be had on grounds. Amusement committee busy.

Miss Lizzie Niebuhr was one of the successful contestants for the Young Sewing Machine contest and won a beautiful machine in mahogany finish with all the latest attachments and improvements.

Frank Lester Price gave a sacred concert at Winnetka Congregational Church last Sunday afternoon.

Wesley A. Stanger, of Evanston, gave the NEWS LETTER a call on Saturday on his way to the horse show at Lake Forest.

Miss Mildred Mihill, who is studying for a trained nurse at St. Luke's Hospital, visited her friends for a few days this week.

Mr. Chas. McClory, of St. Johns avenue, returned from St. Luke's hospital on Thursday, where he has been for the past eleven weeks.

NOTICE.—All parties concerned are hereby notified to have the thistles on their property cut immediately. Failure to do so will subject violator to prosecution. W. F. EDWARDS, 6 Thistle Com.

Mrs. Jane Warden will return today from Connersville, Ind., where she was called on account of the death of her husband, who died there at the age of 92 years. Mrs. Warden is the mother of Mrs. Dale Sweetland.

J. P. Butler, of Highland Park, was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning, at Wilmette, June 30th. His remains were brought to H. M. Prior's undertaking establishment and were laid to rest in Mooney's burying ground beside the body of the deceased mother.

The Year Book of the Deerfield Township High School will soon leave the press. Copies will be on distribution at the drug stores for students or any others interested. Principal R. L. Sandwick left last week for Central New York, where he will visit relatives in Dryden and pursue advanced study in the library at Cornell University.

Charlie Inman's "Brown's" were defeated at the Academy grounds the 4th of July by the Sunday School team. The game was evenly contested, the score being 1 to 0 up to the seventh inning, then the home boys got together and by strenuous batting and errorless fielding outplayed the paid Brown players in an exciting finish. Final score, 4 to 0.

Miss Blanche Shearer, one of the High School teachers, died suddenly at Green Bay, Mich., Tuesday. Miss Shearer was one of the best teachers in the school. Although she had taught only one year here, she had the respect of all with whom she was associated, and will be mourned by a host of friends whose hearts she had won by true Christian character and pleasing ways. Her place will be hard to fill.

The funeral services of Miss Annie Rudolph were held Sunday at the German Lutheran church on Central avenue. The neighbors of the deceased were pall bearers and sixty-two near relatives mourn the departed. Seven sisters and ten brothers survive her. She died at the age of 41 years, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rudolph, who for a number of years lived at Ravinia. Her father died seventeen years ago and this is the next death in the family circle. The deceased was of a noble christian character and upright living, patient in suffering and always subservient to God's will. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at the county line beside those of her father. A host of flowers suggested the love of her many relatives and friends. The memory of her beautiful life will long remain in the hearts of all.