AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

A tragedy was narrowly averted Saturday evening by the presence of mind of Mr. Lemuel Rudolph, chaffuer of a large automobile owned by Mr. Williams who is stopping at the Moraine.

In the auto were Miss Alice Evans, Miss Ida Rudolph, Mr. Frank Green and Mr. Rudolph, the chaffuer. The auto was speeding along on Central avenue, going toward the lake. As they crossed the bridge near the Highland Park Club House, the brake, for some unaccountable reason, would not work and the machine was going toward the bluff at a terrific speed. Some residents who were picnicking on the bluff witnessed the scene and they all thought that the auto and its occupants would be dashed over the bank, but just before they reached the edge of the bluff the chaffuer turned into a pile of stone at the side of the road. The sudden stop threw the occupants into a heap unhurt. One of the tires exploded and the machine was considerably damaged. The owner of the auto absolved the chaffuer from all blame, and was thankful that no one was hurt. The auto was towed to McPherson's for repairs.
