

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

Hammond M R May 1904

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XVI

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1904.

NO. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Purdy spent Sunday in Waukegan.

The city council will hold their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. M. Davis of Milwaukee is visiting her niece Mrs. C. E. McClure.

Walnut avenue and Second street is being macadamized by E. M. Laing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brewer of Chicago spent Sunday with O. E. Hendee.

Mrs. A. Rosenbecker of Lewellyn Park spent Sunday with Mrs. C. E. McClure.

Wesley A. Stanger of Evanston called at the NEWS-LETTER office Wednesday.

Mrs. N. J. Ross, daughter Louise and son Herbert visited Miss Joy Miller Sunday.

The Gad's Hill Encampment disbanded Thursday after a very successful season.

Eleven funerals were held in Highland Park and Highwood during the month of August.

The choir boys of the Episcopal church returned from a week's camping at Druce's Lake.

Mrs. M. W. Harlow who recently underwent an operation for tumor is able to be out again.

Miss Eva Wycoff and Arthur P. Wycoff returned from the Fair at St. Louis Saturday evening.

Miss Nellie Merriman of Waukegan visited friends in Highland Park and Deerfield this week.

O. B. Brand has been photographing the little ones at Gad's Hill during the week.

Prof. R. L. Sandwick and wife returned to the Park this week from their vacation in the east.

Lost—A brown jacket, ladies', brown velvet at the neck. Reward if left at the NEWS-LETTER office.

The stores closed all day Thursday to enable the owners and employees to attend the fair at Libertyville.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the pastor's house on Friday of this week.

The Alumni team defeated the Highland Park Blues at Ravinia Park Saturday afternoon by a score of 8 to 2.

Highland Park Crescents will play Highland Park for the city championship at baseball Labor Day at Ravinia Park.

The infant daughter of J. N. Finney of Central avenue died of summer complaint Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock.

J. Wood of the Gray Electric Co., removed his son to Augustana hospital Sunday. He was suffering with appendicitis.

The services at Gad's Hill last Sunday afternoon were fruitful in results. Fifteen rose for prayers at the close of the meeting.

The Exmoor Club now holds the women's and men's western championships by the victory of Miss Everett and H. C. Egan.

The Children's Sodality will hold their next meeting Sunday, September 11. Preparations are being made for a picnic in the near future.

Miss Lillie Herdklotz who has been spending her vacation with her sisters and friends of Woodstock, Ill., has returned, reporting a delightful visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brewer of Warsaw, Ind., who have been the guests of their nephew Mr. O. E. Hendee for the past two weeks have returned home.

First Baptist Church—Public worship at 10:45 a. m. Subject, "Jesus Christ at home." B. Y. P. U. at 7 p. m. Sunday school at noon. All are welcome. Seats free.

There will be a special matinee Labor Day at Fort Sheridan Park. Dancing after each performance. The great Battle of the Yalu will be presented by the Sheridagraph.

Highland Park has far exceeded all the rest of the Lake Shore towns in its donation for this year to Gad's Hill Encampment. $600 was realized at the Vaudeville given at the Moraine.

Miss Francis Everett, member of the Exmoor Club is the lady champion of the Western Golf Association. She succeeds Mrs. Bernard Horne who held the title for four successive years.

Miss Mabel Harlow who has been spending the summer with her mother Mrs. M. W. Harlow and aunt Mrs. Geo. H. Campbell has gone to spend a few weeks at the World's Fair on her way south.

The Firemen's picnic will be held September 7 at Fort Sheridan Park. There will be two water fights, one in Highland Park in the afternoon and one in Highwood in the evening. Preparations are in progress for a grand time.

The Children's Sodality of St. Mary's church elected their officers for the ensuing year Sunday: President, Annie Kelly; vice-president, Martha Ingersoll; secretary, Frances Sash; treasurer, Marie Greenslade; librarian, Helen Sullivan.

Prof. Arthur L. Eno who is the guest of his aunt Mrs. L. B. Hibbard and who has been instructing in the State University of Texas for the past two years has accepted a position in the English department of the University of Illinois. Prof. Eno is a graduate of Brown University, Providence, R. I., and he also holds an advanced degree from Harvard University.

The Right Rev. John McKim, D. D., bishop of Tokyo will visit Highland Park Sunday, September 11 and will speak of his work in Japan at the 5 o'clock evensong in Trinity church. All are invited to be present and are assured of an interesting and timely address. Bishop McKim has spent many years in Japan and is familiar with every phase of life in that wonderful Island Empire.

The funeral of Daniel Cole took place on Tuesday at 9 a. m., from the family residence. A very large number of friends gathered to pay their last respects. The G. A. R. of which Mr. Cole was a member acted as pall bearers and a large number of the teamsters union were also present. Among the many floral offerings was a floral musket, a large broken wheel and many other beautiful tokens of the esteem and affection of those who loved him. Rev. G. D. Rogers of the Baptist church officiated at the house, and the ritual of the G. A. R. was used at the cemetery. Interment was in the old family lot at Park Ridge. A large number of friends from Park Ridge, Chicago and other places gathered at the cemetery to witness the burial, showing the wide circle of friends who mourn his loss.

FOR RENT

A new modern 12-room house; electric lights, gas, 2 bathrooms, laundry, hot water and hot air furnace and all conveniences. Address B. F. Gump, Highland Park.