The Firemen's picnic at Fort Sheridan Park, Wednesday, was well patronized. The water fight at 6 p. m. on Central avenue was enjoyed by a large crowd of the townspeople. After three trials Company No. 1 was declared the winner. After the water contest a stream of water was thrown nearly as high as the stand-pipe.

In one of his recent letters in the Record-Herald W. E. Curtis tells of an interview he had with Bishop McKim whom he considers one of the best informed foreigners living in Japan, and he pays a very high compliment to the Bishop's intelligence and methods of work. This letter is of special interest just now since Bishop McKim is to visit Highland Park tomorrow and will speak at Trinity church at 5 p. m. about missionary work in Japan. Mr. Wolcott has known the Bishop for many years and had the pleasure of visiting him at his home in Japan. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to come to the 5 o'clock service on Sunday. The offering will be for missions.
