

HIGHWOOD.

The sewer question is progressing slowly.

The triplets born to George Culps were photographed this week.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Monday evening.

The city council will hold its next regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The Organ Committee of the M. E. church gave a concert Thursday evening, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The city council voted a rebate of $200 to the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric Road on their water bill for the last quarter, on account of a question arising about the charges.

Very happy to see you. We do not have a "sour face" about our work. We like the work, we are happy in it. We try to make our customers enjoy coming here. The friendly feeling about the whole store is surely very pleasant to everybody.

Julius Laegeler, Druggist.

Miss Johanna Sweeney, a graduate of the D. T. High School and the Illinois State Normal School, who was engaged to teach school for the ensuing year, had trouble with some of the pupils Thursday. It seems that some of the older pupils became dissatisfied and "went out on strike." They walked to Deerfield and tried to persuade M. C. Decker, who was principal last year to come back to their school again. Mr. Decker has been engaged by the Deerfield trustees for the coming year. There promises to be a warm time as the strikers declare they will not go to school as long as Miss Sweeney is to be their teacher.

Charms of Fossil Hunting.

One of the charms of the fossil hunter's life is the variety, the element of certainty, combined with the gambling element of chance. Like the prospector for gold, the fossil hunter may pass suddenly from the extreme of dejection to the extreme of elation. Luck comes in a great variety of ways, sometimes as the result of prolonged and deliberate scientific search in a region which is known to be fossiliferous, sometimes in such a prosaic manner as the digging of a well.—Century.

DOUBLE WEDDING

A double wedding was held at the residence of Nelson A. Steele, of Waukegan Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Gerald Basie Smith and Miss Helen Bubb of Highland Park, and William Godfrey of Chicago and Miss Ada Bubb of the Park being the participants. The brides are sisters and have resided here for some time with their mother, their father, Col. J. W. Bubb, of the 12th Infantry, being in the Philippines. Miss Margaret Street and Miss Bertha Steele were the maids of honor, and Dr. Hamilton and G. Moreland were the goomsen. They were married by Rev. P. C. Wolcott. Mr. Street is a mining engineer at Salt Lake City, where Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside after a short tour. Mr. Godfrey is a leading lawyer at Galesburg, Ill.

He Smoked.

A very pretty girl with a well defined air of knowing her way about tripped into a day coach of a train bound for Washington at Philadelphia Tuesday afternoon. Every window seat was occupied. The girl walked half way down the car and with obvious disappointment took the best seat that offered. A large, superheated looking man already occupied half of it. He held his breath long enough to make room for the girl, and she squeezed in. Then he settled himself again and appeared to swell out in every direction. The girl cast longing glances at the window, but the man's huge bulk and open newspaper cut off her view. The girl fidgeted. The man spread himself more and more. Full three-quarters of the seat he filled to overflowing. The girl set her teeth. Thirty miles spun by. The girl could endure it no longer. She turned her face to him.

"Excuse me," she said distinctly, "but don't you ever smoke?"
Two minutes later the whole seat was hers.—Washington Post.
