GAD'S HILL ENCAMPMENT

The season of 1904 at Gad's Hill Encampment closed Thursday, September 1, having lasted seven weeks. More than one thousand women and children enjoyed a week's outing in the fresh life-giving air.

Of the two thousand dollars cleared by the "County Fair," one thousand and three dollars was raised at the Highland Park booths. Besides this amount one hundred and sixty-four dollars was contributed.

The following are a few of the many letters received by ladies associated with the Encampment:

CHICAGO, ILL.,
Aug. 25, 1904.

"To the People of Highland Park:

Dear Friends:—We beg to thank you for the good times we had here. We enjoyed ourselves very much and had enough of everything. If you had not given the money we could not have gone out there and could not go to another place. God bless you. Thanking you again we remain, Yours truly,

Mrs. Vitek,
Walter Jonas,
James Jonas.

Tent 'Hibbard.'"

GADSHILL, Aug. 24,

"As we was camping this week, and having a good time we thank the people of Highland Park. As we would like to stay longer but it is impossible.

yours Truly

Mrs. B. Smith.

'Moraine' Tent."

CHICAGO, ILL.,
Aug. 24, 1904.

"Dear Mrs. Martin:—I do thank you for all your kindness toward my brother & I in most all ways, & all ever I have an opportunity to do as I feel like doing I shall pay in deeds.

"Give my thanks and gratitude to the Ladies of Highland Park who have been kind enough to give I and others pleasure, in this beautiful place.

"Give my thanks to the Kooks and Waitresses for their kindness & also those who have missed their own pleasure to give us pleasure closing with a feeling of thanks, I remain,

Ralph C. Goldstine."

As soon as the financial statement of the summer is complete it will be published in the NEWS-LETTER.
