

HIGHWOOD.

The City Council will meet next Tuesday.

Wm. Welch has been very sick during the week.

There are 105 prisoners in the guard house at Ft. Sheridan.

Tommy Bowles has deserted again from the post.

Charles Wentzel is building a new house on Second street.

Guy C. Livingston is building a new house on Cedar avenue.

Sunday was Rally day at the Ebenezer Evangelical Church.

Julius Laegler moved his family into the flat above the store Tuesday.

Miss Helen Whiting returned this week from a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. Elisha Gray's house on Prospect avenue is nearing completion.

Ed Laing is building a large house and barn in the Exmoor addition.

Arthur Purdy spent a day this week at Camp Logan rifle range, practicing.

Paul Borhardt has about completed the two-story brick house near the High School.

Northwestern team defeated the soldiers at Fort Sheridan Sunday, by a score of 17 to 0.

A large number of Highland Park ladies have joined the new Eastern Star lodge at Evanston.

Oct. 18-22 are the dates fixed for the bazaar given by St. Mary's church in Goldberg's Opera House.

The Young Men's Social Union will hold their regular meeting one week from Monday evening.

Brakeman O'Shaunnessy of the Northwestern Road, who has been living here, has moved to Oak Park.

A marriage license was issued Monday for George Ernest and Anna Engelhardt, both of the Park.

Mary Wheeler was operated on at Agustana hospital Monday. She is a daughter of S. S. Wheeler of Everett.

W. B. White and wife are expected back the first of the week from their hunting trip in Wisconsin.

Seventeen incurable insane cases have been found at the County farm, and they will be removed to Peoria.

Thursday morning a license was issued to Charles Scanlin of Fort Sheridan and Ruth G. Jones of Dallas, Texas.

The annual dinner and harvest home festival of the Exmoor Club was held Monday evening at Ravinia Park.

Dr. Samuel Galloway, a pioneer of Lake county, died at his home in Libertyville, Sept. 15, at the age of 76 years.

A gift of a hospital to the Lake Bluff Orphanage has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Swift in memory of their son Nathan.

Mrs. M. Savage was operated on Thursday at St. Joseph hospital, Chicago, by Dr. Sem, and is doing nicely.

Chaplain E. W. White, who is holding a series of meetings at the Baptist church, served in the 12th Michigan during the Spanish war.

The Northwestern Military Academy will have a strong football team this year under charge of Cadet M. J. Allen, formerly coach of the Northwestern.

The annual W. C. T. U. meeting was held Friday at the Christian Church, Gurnee. Resolutions against many things seen at the recent Lake county fair were passed.

Dr. Turner of Highland Park was elected president, Mr. Norstadt, Waukegan, secretary, Mr. Eastwood, Lake Forest, treasurer. A regular schedule will be arranged.

It is rumored that some citizens are averse to a Carnegie gift, preferring to purchase a site and erect a library at the expense of citizens, that it may properly be called "our library".

C. J. Gipp has purchased a ten-acre farm two miles west of the Park and intends to start raising chickens. This will make two such places near the Park, but the call for poultry demands it.

The Children of Port Clinton School made a visit to the South farm west of Highwood to study the habit of farmers in their preparation for winter.

Miss Wray Ridgeway, who has been visiting Miss Celia Colman at Kenosha, Wis., was honored by an interesting and pretty party given in her behalf Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Colman.

Nearly 200 members of the Grand Army of the Republic were present at the reunion at Fort Sheridan Sunday. Governor Van Sant of Minnesota was the guest of honor and delivered an address.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bingley, with the Alexander Sisters or Jubilee singers of the Southland, assisted by Miss Eva Davis, one of the finest readers of the South, will appear at the M. E. Church, Oct. 7. Everyone invited.

The volunteer fire department of Highwood held their annual picnic at Fort Sheridan Park Wednesday afternoon. Dancing and vaudeville formed the programme for the evening. The boys are very popular and the picnic was well attended.

In a few days the Board of Appraisors will begin work here to fix valuation on the property which it is hoped to annex to Fort Sheridan. The members of the board are William A. Bond, George Kirkhoff, jr., and Eugene H. Fishburn. The grounds at the Fort contain 920 acres, which is ample for all needs, but the property to be appraised contains conditions so repulsive to visitors and residents it has been decided to clear the land.

The initial fox hunt of this season was held at Onwentsia Country Club Friday. The fox was an anise seed bag dragged across the ground, but the chase had all the sport of the real. L. S. Cunningham was the only one who went under the fence instead of over at the Collins farm. All were in at the "death". The participants included Mrs. E. S. Adams, Mrs. W. W. Tracy, Miss Leslie Farwell and Misses Mary and Helen Lord.

The Board of Local Improvements met Thursday, Sept. 22, to open bids for the constructing of the two sewers in the north part of the town. One starts in the ravine back of the High School and extends eastward to the Lake. The other in Vine avenue, the Green Bay Road and First street, connecting with the first. The east side contract was awarded to

E. Laing for $3788.75. The west side to J. Cope & Sons for $3,626. Eight bids were presented, five for the east side and three for the west side.

STRINGER TO COME.

Hon. Lawrence B. Stringer has been assigned to make a speech at Fort Sheridan Park on Monday evening, Oct. 10. Every voter and every citizen in the town of Deerfield who appreciates oratory of the highest type should not fail to hear Mr. Stringer. His reputation as a public speaker is well known all over the state and in many of the larger cities outside of the state. Mr. Stringer is unquestionably the most eloquent candidate for any office in the state, and no admirer of eloquence, no matter what his politics may be, should miss hearing him. It is seldom that the people of the town of Deerfield are fortunate enough to have so rare an opportunity to hear a speaker of such great ability. A cordial invitation is extended to all, ladies as well as gentlemen.

A SURPRISE PARTY

Misses Anna Brofka and Nora Learney gave a surprise party for George Smith, Saturday, September 24, at his residence on Second street, the occasion being Mr. Smith's birthday.

Among those invited from Chicago were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. R. Edwin and Miss Anna Goodmiller, T. McKenna, Miss McHashin, T. O'Connor, Miss Emma Doren, James Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. T. Boreman, Mr. and Mrs. Mayer. Lake Forest visitors were Miss May Gallagher, G. Roland. Those from the Park were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dignon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gallagher and daughters Kittie, Dorothea and Pearl; Mr. and Mrs. John Rouse and son and daughter, Charles and Baby Katherine; Mr. and Mrs. P. Punch and daughters, Gerty, Margaret and Mrs. Mary Clifford, W. Stanton, Miss H. McMullen, H. Eberman, Miss Margaret Gallagher, James Deering, Miss Margaret Tearney, Miss Anna Kole, Miss M. Rouse, William Welch, Miss N. Boyle, Mrs. William McCarthy, John Barbers, James Punch, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Sr.

A hayrack ride formed the programme for the early evening. Refreshments and dancing extended to the "wee sma' hours".