

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XVI.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1904.

NO. 20.

HIGHLAND PARK

Robert Saunders of Chicago visited friends here Sunday.

Dandelions are in bloom, owing to the few days of warm weather.

Mrs. Chas. Ward of Chicago visited Mrs. John Snyder on Monday.

The display of chrysanthemums at Bahr's is the finest ever exhibited here.

Miss Anna Cameron, of Bloomington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. E. Dorsey.

Mrs. N. J. Ross, of the Avenue House, Evanston, visited J. L. Miller Monday.

Rev. Geo. D. Rogers is a member of the Henshaw School of Music, Chicago.

Rev. Geo. D. Rogers has been confined to the house for a few days with a severe cold.

Mrs. Wm. M. Goodridge has started for a trip to California. We hope she will receive benefit from the change.

John Robb, of Wilmette, and his mother, from Charlevoix, Mich., visited Assistant Postmaster King last Saturday.

The Highland Park Women's Club met Tuesday afternoon in Library Hall. The place of the next meeting has not been definitely determined.

Members of the Rock River Conference committee discussed while in session October 6, plans for the establishment of coffee houses to combat saloons.

Robert J. Wynne took the oath of office Monday as postmaster general, to succeed the late Mr. Payne. The oath was administered by John J. Hawley, chief clerk to the assistant postmaster general.

Capt. and Mrs. M. C. Davis (formerly Miss Bessie Hall), of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, rejoice in the birth of a third daughter.

The government has permitted the Fox River Bait Casting Club to seine the Fox river and clear the carp out, as these fish are destroying other fish in the river.

The revival meetings at the Baptist Church, by Chaplain White, have been well attended during the week. Services will be held all day tomorrow. Everyone is cordially invited.

Is it the right thing that the ball grounds of the High School should be used by teams for ball playing on Sunday? Is there not one day of the week that young men should be taught to hold sacred?

Word was received at Waukegan, Oct. 6, from Webster, Wis., of the death of J. K. Shatswell, the well known justice of the peace who recently left Waukegan on account of trouble.

A clever forger has been operating in some of the towns on the north shore. He claims to represent Brush Co., of Joliet, Ill. He is described as being six feet tall, with sandy moustache, and of good appearance and bearing.

James McDonald resigned as supervisor Monday, October 10th, on account of his health, and Thursday afternoon, the 13th, the Town Board met at Mr. Prior's office and audited Mr. McDonald's accounts and elected Alexander Robertson to fill out the unexpired term.

Don't forget to register, if your name is not on the list, each voter in his own precinct. Registration days Tuesday next, October 18th, and two weeks later, Nov. 1. Register at your regular town voting place, Prior's office, on the East side up to the Boyington ravine.

The first dishonorable discharge from Battery C, I. N. G., occurred Oct. 6. Wm. J. Brown was discharged from the military service of the State of Illinois for disobedience of orders, neglect of duty and failure to report at drills.

Bishop R. Dubs, D. D., LL. D., will preach Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the United Evangelical Church, Green Bay Road and Laurel Ave. Bishop H. B. Hartzler, D. D., will preach in the evening at 7:30. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor meeting 6:45 p. m.

We are surprised but pleased withal to learn that so many Highland Parkites are going to Florida this coming winter. Having spent a part of two winters there we congratulate them on their good judgment in selecting Florida as a winter resort. We intend also to be among the number of resorters to that beautiful and restful clime.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Leaming. Mrs. Edwin Grover presided. The subject was Mormonism, and a very interesting program was given, showing what a curse and a menace Mormonism is to our country, some of the results of the work of Christian missionaries there, and the immediate need of stringent legislation to protect our country from being overwhelmed by this blight.

The first meeting of the Ossoli Club, held Thursday, Oct. 13, at the Highland Park Club house, was inaugurated with a lecture by Mary Sedgwick Graves on "The Stories of Roman Britain." The program for the year is for the most part a study in early English history, beginning with the Roman period and extending to the time of the Tudors. Mrs. Graves, who is a well known leader of women's classes in Chicago, and who has had much experience, has been engaged to conduct some of the meetings, which hereafter will occur on the first Thursday of the month. At most of the other club meetings the subjects of her lectures will be continued and further elaborated by papers and discussions by club members. The initial program proved both delightful and instructive. Besides the lecture, Mrs. Jean Troxel contributed three songs, and Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Andrews entertained at the tea table.

Read "Opportunities for Suburbs" on page 5 of this issue.

ORDER OF SERVICES,

Lectures, etc., of the 27th Infantry, 11th Cavalry, 14th and 21st Batteries, at Fort Sheridan, Ill., for the week beginning Sunday morning, October 16, 1904.

Sunday morning, Oct. 16, at 8:45.—Service in the mess hall of the guard house for prisoners. Subject of the address, "Creed of the Christian."

Sunday morning, Oct. 16, at 10 o'clock.—Service in the general mess hall, to which all are very cordially invited. Subject of the sermon, "Creed of the Christian."

Sunday evening, Oct. 16, at 7:30.—Service in the mess hall of the post hospital, for patients. Subject of the address, "A Tourist," illustrated with sixty stereopticon slides.

Tuesday evening, Oct. 18, at 7:30, an illustrated lecture in the reading room of Company D, 27th Infantry. Subject of the lecture, "Company D, 27th Infantry, in the Philippine Campaign," illustrated with sixty lantern slides of the company in the advance on Bayan, under command of Lieut. Fries, and Taracea, in command Lieut. Eskridge. This lecture is for the new men of Co. D, who desire to become acquainted with the war history of the company. All seats are free.

Wanted.—Five enlisted men as teachers in the post schools, Nov. 1. Pay fifty cents for each school day. Apply now to Chaplain Rice.

CHAPLAIN GEORGE D. RICE,
27th Infantry.