

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Katharine M. James has been ill with grip the past week.

Mrs. Elisha Gray is visiting her son, David Gray, in New York City.

Miss Elizabeth Cheverton visited relatives in St. Louis for a week.

Major Drew and his family are to spend the winter in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Smith have returned to their Chicago home for the winter.

Herbert La Puelle of Chicago spent Thanksgiving with Charles Warren.

Mrs. Daniel Cott is home once more after a stay of many months in the East.

Miss Helen Whitney has been confined to the house with tonsillitis for a week.

Joseph Joyce of Chicago visited the family of John Finney on Thanksgiving.

Frank Sheahan has been sick during the week and unable to attend to business.

W. W. Willet and E. E. Andrews spent several days together at the St. Louis Fair.

Theodore Seymour fell and broke his collar bone a week ago but is improving nicely.

Mr. Fred Tynch of St. Paul spent Sunday with his mother and his sister, Mrs. Conger.

A baby boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Williams early Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thiels and Miss Caroline visited the St. Louis Exposition last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Washburn of Chicago have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roger for some time.

Mr. O. H. Morgan and Miss Julie Morgan spent a week in Chattanooga, Georgia, returning last Saturday.

Mrs. A. B. Buckley spent Thanksgiving with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Buscher of Winnetka.

Invitations have been issued for a Junior dance at the Highland Park Club house Friday evening November 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Clerihew of Minneapolis are spending Thanksgiving week with their daughter, Mrs. Anson C. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frasier ate Thanksgiving dinner with the family of Rev. George D. Rogers on Seventh street.

Saturday, November 12th, Mrs. John Glass entertained about 25 of her friends at an informal bridge-whist party.

Mr. Clinton Spencer has been confined to the house owing to a lame foot, but he expects to be about again next week.

Dr. Conger and his family move next week to Madison, Wisconsin, where Theodore will attend the Agricultural College.

Mrs. Van Schaich has opened her home on Vine avenue for a short time and her daughter, Mrs. Clinch of Chicago, is visiting her.

James McDonald is reported much improved from his recent stroke of paralysis, and it is hoped he may be seen soon on his feet again.

Wednesday evening the Hunt Club gave a ball at the Onwentsia Club house. A number of the Highland Park young people attended.

Mrs. Helen Floyd is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Jamieson at Rock Island, Illinois.

Sunday night Dr. Watson's office was entered and about twenty dollars worth of gold stolen.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Williams of Central avenue are the happy parents of a fine boy, born Sunday morning.

Mrs. H. C. Lowe and Attorney F. McDonald Lowe and son of Hyde Park visited Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dorsey on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seidel and daughter Lucille spent Thanksgiving with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Buscher of Winnetka.

Thursday, November 17th, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Fessenden gave a dinner at the Union League Club in honor of General and Mrs. Funston and Major James Stansfield.

Miss Mildred Mihills was in the Park for a day last week. She is taking a course at the Training School for Nurses connected with the St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago.

Dr. Eva Field who has spent seven years in Korea talked of her work to the Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian Church last Wednesday afternoon at the Manse.

Stewart Nelson, the youngest son of City Marshall John Nelson, who has been sick with scarlet fever for a couple of weeks, is much improved and immediate recovery is anticipated.

Miss Caroline Schultz, for several years stenographer at the Northwestern Military Academy owing to poor health has given up her position here and gone to her home in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Stewart, formerly of Highland Park, left Chicago this week to spend Thanksgiving in New Orleans and from there will sail for Cuba, where they will remain several weeks.

Mrs. Troxel, mother of Capt. Thomas Troxel, died at her son's home on Central avenue Wednesday afternoon of this week. She was 91 years old. The remains were taken to Burlington, Iowa, Mrs. Troxel's former home.

Monday Congressman Foss and Graeme Stewart of Chicago talked at length in the final hearing by the board selected to choose a site for a naval training station on the Great Lakes. The Pettibone creek site in Illinois was discussed. This point is situated one and one-half miles north of Lake Bluff and four and one-half miles south of Waukegan, which point has the advantage of being recommended by a former board.

The Chicago Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution gave a reception in the Woman's Club rooms in the Fine Art Building on the afternoon of November 17th in honor of General and Mrs. Funton. It was one of the most brilliant affairs of the present season. The guests were received by Major James H. Stansfield of the 2nd Regiment, Illinois National Guard, and Mrs. B. A. Fessenden, regent of the Chicago Chapter. In the receiving line were: Mrs. Henry C. Lytton, vice regent; Mrs. Chas. S. Deaneen; and General and Mrs. Lloyd Wheaton, U. S. A. One thousand guests were received during the afternoon including seven hundred members of the D. A. R., officers of the regular Army and State Militia and men and women prominent in the social life of Chicago.

Mrs. Fred Clow is ill with the grip.

Miss Helen Morgan is visiting friends in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Harrington have returned from their trip in the East.

City Council will meet one week from Tuesday evening.

Thanksgiving services were held in several of the Churches.

Miss Nellie Gallagher returned Monday from a protracted stay in Huron, Dakota.

Larson the News Dealer can save you time and trouble if you place your magazine subscriptions with him.

A complete line of latest Periodicals at Larson's the News Dealer. Subscriptions taken for all publications.

Arthur P. Wycoff came to his Highland Park home for Thanksgiving and will remain for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Yates of La Grange, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Flecher on Thanksgiving and will remain until Monday.

The Royal Arcanum gave a banquet in Ravinia Park Casino Tuesday evening to which a large number of friends of the Order were invited.

This evening the marriage ceremony will be solemnized for Miss Lizzie Arnswood and Ernest Garling in the German Lutheran Church in Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wesling celebrated their silver wedding Thursday at their home in Deerfield. A large number of relations from the Park attended the anniversary.

A subscription dance was given Friday evening, November 25th, at Ravinia Park Casino. The Patronesses were: Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mrs. W. H. Baldwin, Mrs. Frederick P. Boyington, Mrs. Walter Carr, Mrs. E. A. S. Clarke, Mrs. H. B. Clarke, Mrs. Nathan Corwith, Mrs. H. S. Haskins, Mrs. M. A. Ives, Mrs. George H. Maryweather, Mrs. F. R. McMullin, Mrs. Anson Morgan, Mrs. John R. Morgan, Mrs. J. W. Prindiville, Mrs. Fred M. Steele, Mrs. Frank Thom, Mrs. P. L. Wickes, Mrs. Tom R. Nylles, Mrs. J. W. Prindiville. About two hundred responded to the invitation. Mr. Brown of Chicago furnished the music. Mr. Welch of the Exmoor club catered, and a very enjoyable evening was passed by those attending.

Last Tuesday evening, by invitation of the Highland Park Council of the Royal Arcanum Fraternity, over two hundred guests all the way from Wilmette to Waukegan gathered in the Casino and hall at Ravinia Park to celebrate the twenty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the Order and the seventeenth of the Highland Park Council. Regent F. B. Green presided, Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl made the welcoming address. He was followed by speeches from Past-State Regent De Witt, and Grand Chaplain Williams in interesting addresses. After music by the orchestra "Impersonator Brown" of Chicago entertained the audience in his inimitable manner. A fine supper was served and the younger persons present enjoyed themselves far into the night in social time and dancing. The Council here now numbers one hundred forty-six members and is one of the flourishing fraternal societies on the North Shore. Mr. Welch of the Exmoore club catered.