Mr. J. W. Mauck, president of Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Michigan, visited his niece, Miss Fessler, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duraine Smith (nee Emily Obee) are the happy parents of a baby boy, born Sunday evening.

A complete line of latest Periodicals at Larson's the News Dealer. Subscriptions taken for all publications.

Dr. J. Lubock, optician specialist, is in Highland Park every Saturday afternoon. He examines your eyes and prescribes glasses if needful. Appointments may be left at Levin's jewelry store.

Many children's hearts were made glad yesterday morning at the sight of the first snow of the season. The first snow fall last year occurred November 29th, just three days earlier than this winter.

People want to laugh when they visit a play-house nowadays and "The Wizard of Oz," the new extravaganza which comes to the Schwartz Theatre, Waukegan, on Thursday, Dec. 8th, is said to abound in more wholesome rollicking fun and bright spontaneous comedy than any modern spectacle of recent date. Not only is "The Wizard of Oz" a wonderful spectacular triumph, magnificently costumed and staged by the greatest living producer of extravaganzas, Julian Mitchell, but it has the essential of every great success, a well conceived story with original characters. "The Wizard of Oz" is described as a veritable world of beauty, melody, laughter and delicious fascination to the eye.

Axel Norrlen, who created a disturbance in the home of W. H. Detrick Thanksgiving night, was fined five dollars and cost by Justice Weice of Waukegan last Saturday. Norrlen had been imbibing freely Thanksgiving day and at night when he came home he was looking for trouble and found it. He went to the home of Mr. Detrick, took the door from the hinges, and went through the house, breaking furniture and glassware, until an officer was called in. He was then taken to Waukegan. On his return from the county seat he felt vindictive, and having imbibed sufficient Dutch courage, he began operations in front of Mr. Detrick's home. He was rearrested, and fined $36.00 and cost, with a severe reprimand, and a promise that his next escapade would be punished to the limit. This is not the first time Norrlen has created disturbance, but Mr. Detrick was the first to see that he was punished. Mr. Detrick denies that there was a quarrel between Mrs. Detrick and Mrs. Norrlen.

Mr. George Campbell is ill with the shingles.

A sister of Mrs. C. A. Smith is very ill with pneumonia in Chicago.

Master Van Bergen has been confined to the house for two weeks with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Spencer have left for the South, where they will spend the winter months.

Mrs. Mann, who has just returned from the Philippine Islands, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Troxel.

Larson the News Dealer can save you time and trouble if you place your magazine subscriptions with him.

Mr. R. G. Evans, Miss Alice Evans and Miss Emma spent several days at the St. Louis Exposition this week.

The lecture of the Ossoli Club was given by Mary Sedgwick Graves. Subject: "Beginnings of English Literature and Art."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prindiville have moved into the house on the corner of Laurel and Dale avenues which has recently been remodeled.

The Misses McCaffery are visiting Miss Mabel Cole during their brother's illness. Mr. Frank McCaffery is at the Highland Park Hotel.

The statue of Joan of Arc, purchased by the High School with the proceeds of the recent entertainment, arrived Thursday, and has been placed in position ready for unveiling.

Sunday evening the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society will render a program at the First United Evangelical Church. A voluntary thankoffering will be received.

A class of young girls of the Presbyterian Sunday School hold a bazaar at the home of Mr. R. G. Chandler this Saturday afternoon. Christmas fancy work will be sold, candy and popcorn will be on sale and chocolate will be served.

Society, Art, Drama and Music are a few of the many high class features of The Chicago Evening Post, which have secured for it the patronage of the best people of Chicago and the suburbs. Are you one of the readers of this high class paper?

The public will be interested to know that $140.61 was cleared from the High School Dramatic Entertainment, November 18th. The desired statue of Joan of Arc has been purchased. It represents the Maid of Orleans in sitting posture and is life size. Perhaps many have seen the statue as it has been in the lower hall of the Art Institute in Chicago. There will be exercises at the High School Monday morning and the unveiling will probably take place then. As this work of art cost only $40.00 the faculty expect now to purchase "The Ride to Canterbury" a picture depicting Chaucer's characters on the road to Canterbury, which is a copy of a frieze in the home of George Gould. Probably the remainder of the money will purchase pictures of Bismark, Napoleon and Goethe for the modern language room.

WANTED — A respectable man and wife to take care of large house during winter months. Fuel and light will be furnished and reasonable remuneration to right party. Address Box 585, Postoffice.

Mrs. Henry Dennison has been ill for some time.

Mr. F. C. Clark and Miss Estelle spent several days in St. Louis last week.

The regular meeting of the City council will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. C. McManus entertained Chicago friends at the Highland Park Hotel over Sunday.

Leslie McCaffery is ill with scarlet fever. The other children are staying with Mrs. James Duffy during his sickness.

The Cadet Officer's Club of the Northwestern Military Academy have issued invitation to a Military Hop to be held in the drill hall next Friday evening.

Those knowing Mr. George Carver, son of Mrs. Henry C. Carver, will be interested to hear that he has a son. Mr. Carver has for some time been living in Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Margaret C. Cron and Mrs. Mary Campbell have opened dressmaking and ladies tailoring parlors in the house formerly occupied by Will T. Stewart, 171 Park avenue.

The Pastor's Bible Study Class of the Presbyterian Church met for a social time at the home of Mrs. W. W. Flinn Friday evening. About fifteen were present and games and refreshments made the evening a very pleasant one to the young people.

City Marshal John Nelson this week suspended Louis Avery from the police force for unbecoming and disorderly conduct. Avery created a disturbance in Robertson's store Tuesday, and Marshal Nelson, acting in the absence of Mayor Evans, removed his star.

Wednesday of this week Miss Frances Everett gave an informal luncheon in honor of her guest, Miss Alice Blood. Those present were: Miss Julie Cummins, Miss Marion Schwarz, Miss Helen and Miss Julie Morgan, Mrs. W. A. Alexander and Mrs. Harold Sweetland.

The Dorcas society of the Presbyterian Church held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. H. P. Davidson Wednesday. About 17 were present and they spent the day sewing for the children's ward of the Presbyterian Hospital.

Patrick Murphy, who killed his friend, Charles Austin, last week Friday evening, has been bound over to the grand jury on a charge of killing Austin, the final indictment, however, will probably be for manslaughter, as the deed was presumably accidental and induced by provocation. The coroner's jury was composed of R. G. Evans, Andrew Bock, Edward Nevins, H. M. Prior, Louis Avery and John Nelson.

A Triduum will be held in St. Mary's Church, beginning Monday evening, in honor of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. This is the Golden Jubilee year of the Declaration of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception and special services in honor of the event are being held in all Catholic Churches. Monday evening the sermon will be given by the Reverend F. J. Haarth of Lakeside, Tuesday by the Reverend F. N. Perry of Ravenswood and Wednesday evening Reverend E. S. Keough, D. D., secretary to the Most Reverend Archbishop O'Gigley. These meetings are at eight o'clock and the last one, Thursday evening, will close with the solemn benediction.
