EVEN A DOCTOR WILL TURN.

A MAN called upon a doctor not long ago to be examined. The doctor examined him and wrote out a prescription. When told what the fee was the patient asked to be allowed to owe the amount, as he had been out of work for some weeks and was short of funds. As he seemed a decent sort of fellow the doctor granted his request. The man profusely thanked him, and then asked what it would cost to have the prescription done up. On learning that it would cost $1.25, he asked the doctor if he would supplement his kindness by lending him the money. This was too much for the man of medicine. He seized the prescription from the patient's hand and said: "This prescription, I'm afraid, my man, will not do in your case. I've been treating you for nerves."

HIGHLY BRED.

Visitor—I want a high-bred dog.
Attendant—Thin this is wot ye want, sir. He's a Skye terrier.

A superintendent was visiting a school and talking on the use of adverbs and adjectives. "Does your teacher use adverbs and adjectives, children?" he asked.

"Yes, sir," chorused the children.
"Well, what does he use when he does not use adverbs and adjectives?"

There was silence. Finally a very little fellow waved his hand. "He generally uses a ruler, sir."

COMPARISONS.

"My nose is sore," said the elephant.
"That's nothing," remarked the giraffe. "I've got a pain in my neck."

"That cut's no figure at all," put in the kangaroo. "I have the rheumatism in my tail."

"Pshaw!" contemptuously exclaimed the octopus. "My vaccination is taking in eight places."

WHEREIN THE DANGER LIES.

The Doctor (flicking the ashes from his cigar)—You'll be telling me, I suppose, that as a physician I ought to know smoking is unwholesome.

The Professor—Unwholesome? Doctor, it's deadly. Have you never noticed that whenever there is a railroad accident the fatalities are generally confined to the smoking car?

NO ARGUMENT NECESSARY.

Judge (twenty-one years hence)—What are all these young men waiting for?

Clerk of Court—It's a lot more fellows, your honor, who have made application to have their first names changed from Alton B. to Theodore.

Judge—Let the usual order be entered in each case. Call the next.

ABSENT TREATMENT.

"Old Hunks is one of the crankiest and most disagreeable men I ever met, but they say he has a delightful home."

"It may be true. He spends three-fourths of his time away from it."

FIFTY YEARS

From a small beginning this firm has grown until our factories now cover many acres. Some of our machines sold fifty years ago are still giving faithful service.

WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINES

The Rotary Hook, a distinctive feature, originated with this machine, operates in one continuous revolving motion. Compared to a shuttle it works on exactly the same principle as the circular buzz saw in contradistinction to the cross cut saw. The work that can be accomplished, the speed that can be made, and the ease and convenience of operation all are features that have combined to give this machine its present enviable prestige.
