

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. Elisha Morgan has been in St. Louis for about ten days.

Mrs. Jacob Heeketsweiler has been confined to the house for a week.

Mrs. W. P. Morgan and Billie spent Sunday with Capt. O. H. Morgan.

The Lanch Club met with Mrs. W. D. Messenger this week Thursday.

The Academy students are flooding the drill ground for a skating rink.

Mr. T. H. Spencer has rented his house for three years, beginning next May.

Mr. A. W. Waldo's new house on Park avenue is nearing completion rapidly.

Ladies, gents, and children's warm underwear and hose at The Ladies Bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirby have moved into Mrs. Garbolet's house on Laurel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Andrews gave a dinner to a few of their friends Wednesday evening.

Mr. John Putnam will soon lay the foundation for a house on his lot on Prospect avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baldwin are attending a house-warming given by friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. McUne of Highwood have moved to the Park and are living on McGovern street.

Monday evening at the home of Mr. Fred Maechite a surprise party was given for Mr. James Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Vassar Dickenson of Chicago have rented the new house recently built by Mrs. E. E. Gray.

Master George Sullivan is ill with scarlet fever. His father, C. P. Sullivan, is living at the Highland Park Hotel.

The new young people's society of the Baptist Church will have a social in the church-parlor Monday evening.

Mrs. Leaming, Miss Harriet and Marjory and little Jerry will leave for Pensacola, Florida, soon after the holidays.

Friday evening December 16th Mrs. A. R. Jones will give her annual musical for the Highland Park Club. It will be in the club house.

In the list of those who contributed to the recent bazaar given by St. Mary's church was Mrs. G. Bohl, whose name was inadvertently omitted. Mrs. Bohl presented the bazaar with a handsome jardiniere.

Those remembering Mr. Robert Schaffler when he lived with his brother C. E. Schaffler in this city, will be interested to hear of his approaching marriage with Miss Catherine Wilson, which will take place at St. Margaret's, Westminster, London, England, December 21st. After January 10th Mr. and Mrs. Schaffler will be at home at the farm in Irvington-on-the-Hudson, New York. His many friends in the Park will wish them much happiness.

The luncheon given by Mrs. M. E. Sampson on Tuesday was both beautiful and elaborate. There were many guests from out of town. The decorations were in red and white, appropriate colors for the Christmas season, and those, with the beautiful costumes worn by those present, made an unusually attractive scene. The ladies assisting Mrs. Sampson were: Miss Frances Everett, Miss Sadie Buckley, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Care, Mrs. Moseley, Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Petit, Mrs. Clemens.

Doctor Pomeroy has been ill the past week.

Miss Sorg of Iowa is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edward Hintz.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the United Evangelical Church met with Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg Thursday.

A complete line of latest Periodicals at Larson's the News Dealer. Subscriptions taken for all publications.

Mr. J. S. Seymour, who is the business manager of the Record Herald, has been ill for some time, but his friends are glad to know that he is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch of the Exmoor Club have taken charge of the Ravinia Park Casino and will serve suppers and warm drinks to the skaters when the rink is open.

Miss Frances Densmore is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schaffler. The lecture-recital given by her in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening was well attended and very much enjoyed.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the United Evangelical Church held an open meeting. There was special music by the choir, the members of the mission band recited and the thank offering boxes were opened. Over $35 had been saved in them for missionary work.

The High School basket ball team met defeat yesterday at the hands of the New Trier High School. The latter team showed greater experience and better team work. The girls' second team were also defeated in a very close game by the senior New Trier Girls.

The Sacred Concert given in St. Mary's Church Sunday evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all attending. The congregation is to be congratulated upon having so fine an organ and the excellent programme rendered last Sunday evening proved a suitable dedication of so beautiful an instrument.

The Pope Bicycle Daily Memorandum Calendar for 1905 contains a memorandum leaf for every day in the year, and 365 original sayings in favor of good roads, good health, outdoor exercise, and that great vehicle of health-giving, the modern bicycle, by our most eminent living men of marked accomplishment. The calendar is free at Pope Mfg. Co.'s stores or any of our readers can obtain it by sending five 2 cent stamps to Pope Mfg. Co., Hartford, Conn., or 143 Sigel St., Chicago, Ill.

There are two societies in the Presbyterian church, one of young men, the other of young women, organized for the purpose of church usefulness, particularly that of helpful work among the young people of the West Division Street Mission church in Chicago. Thursday evening thirty members accepted the invitation of the minister and his wife to a late supper at their home and attend a bazaar given by that church, to which each of the young ladies had contributed one or more articles. After dinner speeches were made and a little entertainment was offered by some of the out of town guests which included Mr. Raymond Lovell, Miss Lovell, Miss Sweetland, Miss Troxel, Miss Cheyerton and Mr. F. M. Steele.

FOR SALE—A handsome weathered oak dining table; hand carved; at a bargain. Inquire C. E. Wilcox.

Mrs. William Arnswald has been ill with bronchitis the past week.

Mrs. C. E. Wilcox visited Mrs. M. K. Cowan in Chicago for several days.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Steffen Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merritt spent two weeks in New York, returning last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pansy of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Bahr.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher leave the 20th for Colorado, where they will remain two weeks.

Mr. William Fitzgerald on account of ill health resigned his position with the C. & M. E. Railway.

Larson the News Dealer can save you time and trouble if you place your magazine subscriptions with him.

Mr. Charles Davidson of South Dakota and Mrs. Moelle Davidson of Minnesota spent last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Davidson.

The election of officers of Highland Park Council, No. 1066, Royal Arcanum, will be held in Masonic Hall next Monday night. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Winston now stationed at Fort Wright, Fisher's Island, New York had a little girl born December 1st. Mrs. Winston was formerly Miss Alice Green of Highland Park.

Dr. J. Lubeck, optical specialist, is in Highland Park every Saturday afternoon. He examines your eyes and prescribes glasses if needful. Appointments may be left at Levin's jewelry store.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Aldridge announce the marriage of their daughter Ethel Ruth to Mr. Werner Spengler Wednesday morning, December 7th. The wedding was a very quiet one, only relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. Spengler have gone to Wisconsin for a short trip.

The Ladies Bazaar is headquarters for Christmas gifts of all kinds, including fancy pillows, pillow-tops, Japanese china, baskets, Japanese silk initial handkerchiefs, dolls of all sizes, toys, stationery, kid gloves, toilet articles, wool shawls, mittens, etc. Mrs. Bohl's new store, next door to the post office.

After defraying the expenses of the subscription dance given at the Ravinia Park Casino Friday evening, November 25th, there was a surplus of $25.46. The committee have sent a check for that amount to Miss Lucy Judson, Superintendent of the Lake Bluff Orphanage, as a Christmas donation to the children.

The wedding of Miss Dimple C. Sack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sack, to Mr. Edwin E. Larson occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sack, Deerfield avenue, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Albert Larson was best man, Miss Delia Sack, maid of honor and the Reverend Ebert of the Ebenezer church officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Larson will reside for the present with the bride's parents.

The subject of the Ossoli Club this week was the "Third Epoch of Old English Days from Celt to Tudor." The papers were as follows:

The Monastic Industries - - - Mrs. E. E. Gray
Cathedrals, Durham, Peterborough, Ely

The Venerable Bride - - - Miss Ellen Van Schick
King Alfred - - - Mrs. Chas Warren
- - - Miss Collins

In the absence of Mrs. E. E. Gray, her daughter, Mrs. Charles Everett, read the paper.