High School Notes

President Harlane of the Lake Forest College gave an interesting address to the students on Monday morning. The subject of his talk was "Work," and with many simple but forceful illustrations he showed that concentration and persistency are the attributes of success.

The annual Mid-year reception to the members of the high school and the alumni will be given Monday evening, February 3rd. The girls' glee club is preparing some songs for that evening and the scenes from Shakespeare's historical plays given last Tuesday by the English History class will be repeated in costume at the reception. The leading roles in these scenes are given by E. Seymour, Geo. Phillips, Ben Fessenden, Melvin Sweetland, Lyman Prior, Paul Van Dyne, Olive Barry, Marjory Aldridge and Adelaide Inman.

The Commercial Department has founded a corporation entitled the Deerfield Highland Company, with the faculty and members of the class in accounting as stock holders. The business of this corporation calls into use all the different branches of the Commercial Department, such as printing, book keeping, commercial law, banking, etc.

There was an exciting basket ball game between the Lake Forest Academy boys and our high school team at the College gymnasium at Lake Forest on Wednesday afternoon. The score was 17 to 9 in the high school favor and the line up was as follows: Ed. Seymour, center, Oliver Schaeffer and Roger Fritch, forwards, Lyman Prior and Ben Fessenden guards.

On Friday afternoon the girls' team—winners of the North Shore penant—and Hyde Park, the largest high school in Chicago and famous for the excellence of its athletics, played in the high school gymnasium. This game was especially interesting because last year Deerfield defeated Hyde Park by a narrow score and both teams expected to win this time. The result was a score of 34 to 13 in favor of Hyde Park.
